Section A

Answer Question 01.

Source A

From a letter to Cardinal Giulio de Medici from Girolamo Aleandro, papal ambassador to the Court of the Holy Roman Emperor Charles V, 17 April 1521.

At Worms, the pure mercy and grace of the Emperor granted Luther a respite until the following day. The Emperor had one of his officials say to Luther that he had sown many heresies and therefore warned him to change his attitude. Then Luther was dismissed without speaking further. The fool, Luther, had entered smiling and, before the Emperor, kept his head turning continually here and there, but when he left he did not seem so cheerful. Even some of his supporters, after they had seen him, said that he was foolish; others that he was possessed. But many others thought him a pious man, full of the Holy Ghost. In any case, he has lost considerable reputation in regard of it all.

Source B

From Luther's Answer before the Holy Roman Emperor and the Diet of Worms, 18 April 1521.

The imperial orator said it was not for Luther to call into question things which had been defined by Church councils, but demanded a simple answer with no qualification: would Luther revoke or would he not?

Luther replied: Since your serene Majesty and your lordships request a simple answer, I shall give it, with no qualification and no catches. Unless I am convinced by the testimony of scripture or plain reason (for I believe neither in Pope nor councils alone, since it is agreed that they have often been in error and contradicted themselves), I am bound by the scriptures I have quoted, and my conscience is captive to the Word of God. I neither can nor will revoke anything, for it is neither safe nor honest to act against one's conscience. Amen.
