01 Nature transformed

Artists and craftspeople often transform materials from the natural world to create their work. Richard Shilling photographs his ephemeral land art. Cas Holmes uses layers of found natural forms to make sustainable textile works. Richard Long uses photography, maps and texts to record his walks and makes sculpture from natural materials in the landscape. James Doran Webb creates animal sculptures from driftwood. Research appropriate contextual material and produce a personal response.

02 Scandinavian art and design

Scandinavian arts and crafts are noted for their simplicity and elegance of design and function. Arne Jacobsen's architecture and furniture made a significant contribution to Modernism and Verner Panton's furniture includes bold abstract shapes and colours. Usability and simplicity have been at the core of Scandinavian graphics and web design. In Finland, the design company Marimekko produced bold and colourful furnishings, fabrics and fashion. Helene Schjerfbeck was a pioneer of Modernism in painting. Refer to appropriate contextual material and produce your own work.

[96 marks]

03 Wildfowl and poultry

Wildfowl and poultry often have strikingly beautiful plumage and have unique personalities and characteristics. They have appeared on banknotes, flags, stamps, coins, coats of arms, food advertising, wallpaper and textiles. Both Picasso and Katharina Fritsch produced sculptures of cockerels. Joseph Crawhall and Chris Jones produced contrasting approaches to painting poultry. Robert Gillmor made lino prints of a Norfolk Black Turkey and Red Breasted Geese. Make reference to appropriate work by others and produce a personal response.

[96 marks]*04 Mother and child

The emotional power of mother and child imagery has always inspired artists and craftspeople. Michelangelo and Luca della Robbia explored the emotional and formal relationships in the subject of the 'Madonna and Child'. Mary Cassatt produced paintings which portray aspects of motherhood. Henry Moore produced sculptures which are an expression of the bond between mother and child. Dorothea Lange's photographs captured the impacts of the Great Depression on mothers and children. Investigate appropriate contextual material and respond in your own way.

[96 marks]*05 Crustaceans

The interesting forms and shapes of crustaceans have featured in works of art from ancient to modern times. Crustaceans appear in Roman mosaics at Pompeii. Images of crustaceans are used as decoration on Japanese Inrō. Hiroshige depicted lobsters and shrimps in woodcuts. Salvador Dalí created a surreal sculpture with a lobster as a phone handset. Mary O'Malley creates dishware encrusted with crustaceans. Elizabeth Blackadder made prints and etchings of various crustaceans. Consider appropriate contextual material and produce a personal response.

[96 marks]*06 Dance

Dance, with its long cultural traditions, movement and expression has inspired artists and designers. The Kathakali dancers of Kerala are examples of the complex links between costume, jewellery, makeup and choreography. Kate Sampson produced posters for dance performances. Bill Wadham uses blurred motion photography to explore dance movement. Henri Matisse explored aspects of dance through painting and paper cut-outs. Explore relevant work by others and produce a personal response.

Jane Perkins uses various found objects such as plastic bricks, shells, beads and buttons to create portraits and representations of old master paintings. Su Blackwell uses old books to make sculptures. Nancy Judd creates couture fashion from found material. Research appropriate examples and produce a personal response.

[96 marks]*08 Lighting
