0 2 Look in detail at this extract, from LINES 13 TO 25 of the source:

Mr Fisher remembered a time – surely, not so long ago – when books were golden, when imaginations soared, when the world was filled with stories which ran like gazelles and pounced like tigers and exploded like rockets, illuminating minds and hearts. He had seen it happen; had seen whole classes swept away in the fever. In those days, there were heroes; there were dragons and dinosaurs; there were space adventurers and soldiers of fortune and giant apes. In those days, thought Mr Fisher, we dreamed in colour, though films were in black and white, and good always triumphed in the end.

How does the writer use language here to convey Mr Fisher’s views on books and stories of the past?

You could include the writer’s choice of:

- words and phrases
- language features and techniques
- sentence forms.

03

You now need to think about the WHOLE of the source.

This text is from the beginning of a short story.

How has the writer structured the text to interest you as a reader?

You could write about:

- what the writer focuses your attention on at the beginning of the source
- how and why the writer changes this focus as the source develops
- any other structural features that interest you.

Focus this part of your answer on the second part of the source, from LINE 41 to THE END.

A student said, ‘This part of the story, where Mr Fisher is marking homework, shows Tippet’s story is better than Mr Fisher expected, and his reaction is extreme.’

To what extent do you agree?

In your response, you could:

- consider your own impressions of what Mr Fisher expected Tippet’s homework to be like
- evaluate how the writer conveys Mr Fisher’s reaction to what he discovers
- support your response with references to the text.

[20 marks]

SECTION B: WRITING

You are advised to spend about 45 minutes on this section.

Write in full sentences.

You are reminded of the need to plan your answer.

You should leave enough time to check your work at the end.
