Look in detail at this extract, from lines 8 to 20 of the source:

The extract from the source cannot be reproduced here due to third party copyright restrictions.

How does the writer use language here to describe the mountain area?

You could include the writer's choice of:

- words and phrases
- language features and techniques
- sentence forms.

03

You now need to think about the WHOLE of the source.

This text is from the beginning of a novel.

How has the writer structured the text to interest you as a reader?

You could write about:

- what the writer focuses your attention on at the beginning of the source
- how and why the writer changes this focus as the source develops
- any other structural features that interest you.

[8 marks]

0 4

Focus this part of your answer on the second part of the source, from line 37 to the end.

A reader said, ‘This part of the story, where Alice decides to continue digging for the object, is very mysterious, and suggests her discovery may be life-changing.’

To what extent do you agree?

In your response, you could:

- consider the reasons why Alice decides to continue digging
- evaluate how the writer creates a sense of mystery
- support your response with references to the text.

[20 marks]

Section B: Writing

You are advised to spend about 45 minutes on this section.

Write in full sentences.

You are reminded of the need to plan your answer.

You should leave enough time to check your work at the end.

---	---

An online competition for story writing is being held, and you have decided to enter.

EITHER

Write a story, set in a mountainous area, as suggested by the picture on page 23.

The picture shows a person with their back to the camera sitting on a wooden jetty which has several boat mooring posts. The jetty stretches out onto a lake which is surrounded by mountains. There are no other people in the picture. The cloud is low and the water is flat and calm. The colours of the water and the mountains are different shades of blue and green. A seagull sits on top of one of the mooring posts.

OR

Write a story with the title 'Discovery'.

(24 marks for content and organisation
16 marks for technical accuracy)
