Paper 1 Key Terms and Concepts

October/November 2025

MARK SCHEME

Maximum Mark: 80

Published

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge International will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge International is publishing the mark schemes for the October/November 2025 series for most Cambridge IGCSE, Cambridge International A and AS Level components, and some Cambridge O Level components.

This document consists of 17 printed pages.

Generic Marking Principles

These general marking principles must be applied by all examiners when marking candidate answers. They should be applied alongside the specific content of the mark scheme or generic level descriptions for a question. Each question paper and mark scheme will also comply with these marking principles.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 1:

Marks must be awarded in line with:

- the specific content of the mark scheme or the generic level descriptors for the question
- the specific skills defined in the mark scheme or in the generic level descriptors for the question
- the standard of response required by a candidate as exemplified by the standardisation scripts.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 2:

Marks awarded are always whole marks (not half marks, or other fractions).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 3:

Marks must be awarded positively:

- marks are awarded for correct/valid answers, as defined in the mark scheme. However, credit is given for valid answers which go beyond the scope of the syllabus and mark scheme, referring to your Team Leader as appropriate
- marks are awarded when candidates clearly demonstrate what they know and can do
- marks are not deducted for errors
- marks are not deducted for omissions
- answers should only be judged on the quality of spelling, punctuation and grammar when these features are specifically assessed by the question as indicated by the mark scheme. The meaning, however, should be unambiguous.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 4:

Rules must be applied consistently, e.g. in situations where candidates have not followed instructions or in the application of generic level descriptors.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 5:

Marks should be awarded using the full range of marks defined in the mark scheme for the question (however; the use of the full mark range may be limited according to the quality of the candidate responses seen).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 6:

Marks awarded are based solely on the requirements as defined in the mark scheme. Marks should not be awarded with grade thresholds or grade descriptors in mind.

Social Science-Specific Marking Principles (for point-based marking)*1 Components using point-based marking:

- Point marking is often used to reward knowledge, understanding and application of skills. We give credit where the candidate's answer shows relevant knowledge, understanding and application of skills in answering the question. We do not give credit where the answer shows confusion.

From this it follows that we:

- a DO credit answers which are worded differently from the mark scheme if they clearly convey the same meaning (unless the mark scheme requires a specific term)
- b DO credit alternative answers/examples which are not written in the mark scheme if they are correct
- c DO credit answers where candidates give more than one correct answer in one prompt/numbered/scaffolded space where extended writing is required rather than list-type answers. For example, questions that require n reasons (e.g. State two reasons ...).
- d DO NOT credit answers simply for using a 'key term' unless that is all that is required. (Check for evidence it is understood and not used wrongly.)
- e DO NOT credit answers which are obviously self-contradicting or trying to cover all possibilities
- f DO NOT give further credit for what is effectively repetition of a correct point already credited unless the language itself is being tested. This applies equally to 'mirror statements' (i.e. polluted/not polluted).
- g DO NOT require spellings to be correct, unless this is part of the test. However spellings of syllabus terms must allow for clear and unambiguous separation from other syllabus terms with which they may be confused (e.g. Corrasion/Corrosion)

2 Presentation of mark scheme:

- Slashes (/) or the word 'or' separate alternative ways of making the same point.
- Semi colons (;) bullet points (•) or figures in brackets (1) separate different points.
- Content in the answer column in brackets is for examiner information/context to clarify the marking but is not required to earn the mark (except Accounting syllabuses where they indicate negative numbers).

3 Calculation questions:

- The mark scheme will show the steps in the most likely correct method(s), the mark for each step, the correct answer(s) and the mark for each answer
- If working/explanation is considered essential for full credit, this will be indicated in the question paper and in the mark scheme. In all other instances, the correct answer to a calculation should be given full credit, even if no supporting working is shown.
- Where the candidate uses a valid method which is not covered by the mark scheme, award equivalent marks for reaching equivalent stages.
- Where an answer makes use of a candidate's own incorrect figure from previous working, the 'own figure rule' applies: full marks will be given if a correct and complete method is used. Further guidance will be included in the mark scheme where necessary and any exceptions to this general principle will be noted.

4 Annotation:

- For point marking, ticks can be used to indicate correct answers and crosses can be used to indicate wrong answers. There is no direct relationship between ticks and marks. Ticks have no defined meaning for levels of response marking.
- For levels of response marking, the level awarded should be annotated on the script.
- Other annotations will be used by examiners as agreed during standardisation, and the meaning will be understood by all examiners who marked that paper.

Annotations guidance for centres

Examiners use a system of annotations as a shorthand for communicating their marking decisions to one another. Examiners are trained during the standardisation process on how and when to use annotations. The purpose of annotations is to inform the standardisation and monitoring processes and guide the supervising examiners when they are checking the work of examiners within their team. The meaning of annotations and how they are used is specific to each component and is understood by all examiners who mark the component.

We publish annotations in our mark schemes to help centres understand the annotations they may see on copies of scripts. Note that there may not be a direct correlation between the number of annotations on a script and the mark awarded. Similarly, the use of an annotation may not be an indication of the quality of the response.

The annotations listed below were available to examiners marking this component in this series.

Annotations

Annotation	Meaning
	Correct point
	Incorrect point
BOD	Benefit of doubt given
VG	Content of response too vague
NAQ	Not answered question
REP	Repetition
SEEN	Page or response seen by examiner
BP	Blank page
K	Knowledge
APP	Application
AN	Analysis
EVAL	Evaluation

1(b)(i)	Define the term ‘short haul’. Award one mark for a correct definition. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A (flight) lasting less than 4/6 hours. Credit all valid responses.	1
1(b)(ii)	Define the term ‘self-catering’. Award one mark for a correct definition. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A type of accommodation where the tourists provide and cook for themselves. Credit all valid responses.	1
1(c)	Explain two likely reasons why most visitors to Scotland are short haul visitors. Award one mark for the correct identification of a reason and a second mark for explanatory development of the reason in context. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Scotland’s largest source market is Europe [1]; visitors only need to travel a short haul flight to reach Scotland. [1] • Many tourists visiting for VFR which is likely to be domestic [1]; all flights within the UK are less than 6 hours, therefore short haul. [1] Credit all valid responses.	4

Question	Answer	Marks
1(d)	Explain three ways destinations can benefit from having a longer peak season. Award one mark for the correct identification of a way and a second mark for explanatory development of the way in context. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • More tourist spend in the area [1]; positive economic benefits are experienced for longer. [1] • Increase in the number of tourists visiting the destination [1]; tourism industry becomes less seasonal. [1] • Wider range of visitors / different types of tourists travel at different times of the year [1]; the destination can increase its market share / tourism provision. [1] • Less seasonal jobs / creates more jobs [1]; less poverty for local population in low season / local people increase their income / improve their standard of living. [1] • Improved reputation for the destination [1]; able to cater for a variety of tourism / tourist types, strengthening / expanding the tourism industry at the destination. [1] Credit all valid responses.	6

Question	Answer	Marks
1(e)	Assess the likely impacts to tourism of introducing a tourism tax. Follow the point-based marking guidance at the top of this mark scheme and use Table B to give marks for each candidate. AO1 out of two marks AO3 out of two marks AO4 out of two marks Responses may include the following and any other valid points should be accepted. AO1 Knowledge and Understanding <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tourist numbers decrease. • Tourist numbers increase. • Shorter visit time / length / stay less days due to increased expense. • Destination develops a bad reputation. • Increase in money for the government to spend on local services. AO3 Analysis <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Extra travel expense makes the destination less affordable / less competitive / less appealing to some tourist types or market segments. • Extra facilities funded from the tax makes the destination more appealing to a wider range of tourists. • Less competitive / harder to market to tourists to counteract the tax. • Shows the sustainable credentials of the country and attracts responsible tourists. • Tourist tax is protected for spending on environmental projects only, therefore the destination becomes more sustainable. AO4 Evaluation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tourist tax is now common across the world and tourists are used to paying extra so this won't detract them from visiting Scotland. • Cost is minimal so the negative impacts will be small, and the positive impacts in the country will outweigh any negative impact demand. 	6
