General comments

In general candidates performed quite well on this paper, with a wide range of marks awarded.

Answers to Question 1 and Question 2 can be simple sentences to gain full marks. Stronger candidates were able to construct complex sentences.

Also, one should note that the answer for Question 5 (a) should be a summary of Part 1 and Part 2 of the passages in their own words with ten points from both passages to achieve ten marks. These ten points need to be relevant to the question being asked.

Essay

Key messages

- This is an essay paper in which candidates are required to compose one essay from a choice of five topics.
- The essay is marked out of 40 with 16 marks available for content and 24 marks available for Quality of Language.

General comments

The overall performance on this paper was good and there were no infringements of the rubric. Weaker responses were characterised by a combination of misunderstandings of the question, leading to loss of marks for content and some poor language skills. The most common spelling errors occurred in the use of the following letters, which were written in an incorrect form:

1. ல – ழ – ள
2. ந – ன – ண
3. ர – ற
4. த் – ட்

Candidates would benefit from more practice in using these letters.

- Another common mistake is the 'குறில்' and 'நெடில்' letters. It refers to short vowel and long vowel sounds.

Example: திமைகள் (incorrect) – தீமைகள் (correct)

- Candidates should also be reminded that the letter ஏ conjugates with other consonants.

Example: க + ஏ = கே/ல + ஏ = லே

- Next, candidates use the informal language which is used in daily conversation. Some words which are used in daily conversation are not suitable to write in formal pieces of writing.
- Candidate should write the accurate version of idioms, proverbs and 'Thirukural' – Mistakes made by candidates by not writing the full version of 'Thirukural' and the explanation did not reflect the proverb/idioms.

Example: one candidate wrote – 'கற்க கசடறக் கற்பவை கற்றபின்...' (hanging ^)

Correct: கற்க கசடறக் கற்பவை கற்றபின் நிற்க அதற்குத் தக (full form)

- There are a few candidates who have written proverbs of Pazhamozhi and Thirukural as well. This shows good knowledge of using the Tamil proverbs and Thirukural according to the situation.

Overall

Candidates did well. To gain more marks, try to insert idioms and link to real world examples. Support your answer by giving supporting evidence. Candidates should also be able to write more than 250 words.

Texts

Key messages

This is a literature paper in which candidates are required to write the response in an essay form which covers three essays from a choice of six different forms of work, such as poetry – Sangam, Thirukural etc., dramas, short stories, a novel, etc.

The essay is marked out of 75 in total and 25 for each response checking on the content, word count and quality of language.

General comments

The overall performance on this paper was good and there were no infringements of the rubric. Weaker responses were characterised by a combination of not directly answering to the question, leading to loss of marks for content and some poor language skills. The most common spelling errors occurred in the use of the following letters, which were written in an incorrect form:

- ல – ழ – ள
- ந – ன – ண
- ர – ற
- த் – ட்

Students would benefit from more practice in using these letters.

- Another major mistake is the 'குறில்' and 'நெடில்' letters. It refers to short vowel and long vowel sound. Example: பர்வை (incorrect) – பார்வை (correct).
- The use of the colloquial language or the spoken language which is used in normal conversation is not appropriate in an exam situation. Some words which are in daily conversation are not suitable in formal writing.
- Example: கட்பு should be written as கற்பு, பேந்து will be பிறகு, ஆக்கள் should be ஆட்கள் and other similar examples.
- Candidates should not reproduce the Thirukkural in their responses. They are only expected to explain and write the answer accordingly.
- In case of answering Question 4 from section 2, many candidates only wrote about the biography of the author or the poet rather answering the question for the poetry or story, which is irrelevant.

Comments on specific questions
