- 1 Danny has allegedly broken into a house and stolen goods to the value of 10,000 pounds. He is also accused of causing considerable damage to the property.

The police have since raided his home and seized several items that they found there. Danny has six previous convictions including theft and causing grievous bodily harm. At the time of the alleged offence he was on bail awaiting trial, having been charged with a further offence of burglary.

Danny appeared before the magistrates' court, was refused bail and remanded in custody.

From the outset he pleads 'not guilty' to burglary, claiming that he was mistakenly identified by an unreliable witness.

- (a) In what circumstances does the Police and Criminal Evidence Act [PACE] permit the police to enter and search Danny's home? [5]
- (b) Discuss whether the magistrates were acting within their powers when they refused Danny bail. [5]
- (c) One week after his first bail application Danny re-applies for bail. What are his chances of success? Justify your answer. [5]
- (d) How can the prosecution appeal if Danny is:
1. acquitted
 2. convicted but given what the prosecution regard as a light sentence? [10]

- 2 (a) Bert has owned a metal recycling business for many years. The premises have always been protected by two guard dogs left to run loose in the yard. Advise Bert what steps he must take to avoid committing any offence under Section 1 of the Guard Dogs Act 1975. [5]
- (b) Carlton is bitten by one of the dogs when he visits the yard to buy a part for his car. Discuss whether Carlton can use the Guard Dogs Act 1975 to claim compensation from Bert. [5]
- (c) Oscar is a dog warden employed by the local authority. One day he passes Bert's yard and the guard dogs rush towards him, barking and growling loudly. Oscar is very concerned about the way in which the dogs behaved and decides to prosecute. Advise Oscar what further information he should obtain to show that an offence has been committed under Section 1 of the Guard Dogs Act 1975. [5]
- (d) How do the courts discover the intention of Parliament when interpreting statutes such as the Guard Dogs Act 1975? [10]
