It was Upuli's first time watching a live cricket match at the stadium. She had spent years watching matches on the television, celebrating her team's victories and analysing their defeats with relatives and friends. She had dreamed often of going to the stadium to watch an international game, but the stadium was so far from her town and the transport was so expensive that she hadn't been able to go.

Today, she sat proudly in the stadium as both teams came on to the cricket field. At one point, a national television channel announced her presence in the crowd as the winner of the local competition. Upuli smiled broadly and said her prayers for her team. Her wishes were fulfilled when her team won the match.
