Key messages

To do well in this paper, candidates need to:

- ensure that they answer one question from Section A and one question from Section B
- adhere to the word limits specified
- ensure that their work is legible, accurate and logically presented
- show an awareness of the conventions of paragraphing and sentence structure
- demonstrate adequate control of vocabulary, syntax and grammar, punctuation and spelling
- understand and be able to employ a range of apt vocabulary
- be able to order and present facts, ideas and options
- ensure the same word is not repeated many times
- ensure that they present their responses in the form stipulated in the question (e.g. letter, dialogue etc.)
- plan their use of time for each question and allow time for thorough checking of their work.

General comments

In general candidates performed quite well on this paper.

In Section A, topic (a) was the most popular and in Section B, topics (a) and (c) were the ones most often selected.

Stronger candidates made few spelling errors but weaker candidates generally struggled to construct sentences accurately and made frequent spelling mistakes.

The most common spelling errors occurred in the use of the following letters, which were often written in an incorrect form.

1. ன - ண - ந
2. ல - ள - ழ
3. ர - ற (கூருவது - கூறுவது)
4. ப - பா (பாடசாலை - படசாலை, பூண்டு - புண்டு) போன்ற குறில் - நெடில் எழுத்துக்கள்
5. ல - ல் (கல்வி - கலவி, ஆனால் - ஆன்னால்) போன்ற மெய் - உயிர்மெய் எழுத்துக்கள்
6. மெய் மிகும் இடங்கள் மெய் மிகா இடங்கள் - (மதிப்பெண்கள் - மதிபெண்கள், கடைகாரர் - கடைக்காரர், படிபடியாக - படிப்படியாக)

Candidates seemed to have organised their time in the examination well and all candidates followed the instructions on the question paper.

Paper 3226/02
Translation and Reading
Comprehension

Key messages

In order to do well in this paper, candidates need to make sure that they express themselves in clear, correct and concise language.

In addition, candidates need to:

- ensure that they plan their time for each question and allow time for thorough checking of their work
- ensure that their work is legible and logically presented
- read the translation passages carefully before beginning to translate.

General comments

Overall, a range of performance was seen on this paper. Candidates seem to have organised their time in the examination well and there were no rubric infringements.

Comments on specific questions

Section A – Translation

Question 1: Translation into English

Candidates were required to translate a passage from Tamil into English. The majority of candidates coped very well with this exercise.

Question 2: Translation into Tamil

Candidates were required to translate a passage from English into Tamil, and a range of performance was seen here. Some common errors were as follows.

1. ன – ண – ந 2. ல – ள – ழ 3. ர – ற 4. கீழே – கீழ – கீளை

Section B – Reading Comprehension

Most candidates demonstrated a reasonable understanding of the passage. The majority of candidates gave correct answers to Questions 3, 4, 6, 8, 9, 10 and 11. Some weaker candidates gave the same response for Questions 7 and 8. Some candidates provided only partial responses to Questions 6 and 7.

If two marks are available for a question, then candidates need to provide two points in their answer in order to have access to full marks for that question. Likewise if three marks are available for a question, then candidates will need to provide three points and so on.
