October/November 2017

MARK SCHEME

Maximum Mark: 50

Published

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge International will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge International is publishing the mark schemes for the October/November 2017 series for most Cambridge IGCSE[®], Cambridge International A and AS Level components and some Cambridge O Level components.

This document consists of 12 printed pages.

Note: All Examiners are instructed that alternative correct answers and unexpected approaches in candidates' scripts must be given marks that fairly reflect the relevant knowledge and skills demonstrated.

| 1 | General notes Candidates should select ideas from the passage and develop them relevantly, supporting what they write with details from the passage. Look for an appropriate register for the genre, and a clear and balanced response which covers the three areas of the question, is well sequenced, and is in the candidate's own words. Responses might use the following ideas: A1: Mia's behaviour and attitude <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • critical about other contestants (det. sick of contestants smiling, song choices, laughed at girl's dress) [dev. unaware how it would be presented] • rude behaviour to others involved with show (det. shouted at hairdresser, snapped at other contestants, called the technicians lowly / boring) [dev. brat, spoilt] • ignored advice / other's opinions (det. ignored technicians' instructions, did not listen to presenters' advice) [dev. waste of time] • believed in her own talent (det. knew she was best, a true star, reached final, newspapers say she has the best voice) [dev. over-confident, arrogant] • admired own appearance (det. preened, admired (herself)) [dev. conceited] • ran from the stage (det. tears, ashamed, didn't want to be famous any more) [dev. cowardly] A2: How other people were affected by Mia's behaviour <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • other contestants complained (det. late for rehearsals) [dev. had to wait for her] • back-stage staff were annoyed (det. murmurs, scowls, thought she was 'constantly complaining') • presenters enjoyed her humiliation (det. fake smiles, insisted on comment on camera) [dev. felt she deserved it / had it coming] • band disassociated themselves from her (det. stepped away) [dev. did not approve of her behaviour] • fan(s) hurt / disappointed (det. little boy pushed by Mia, wanted autograph) [dev. mother forced to drop complaint] • studio audience were angered by her behaviour (det. jeering, hissing, booing) [dev. wanted revenge on her for behaving badly, fooled by press article(s)] | |

| Question | Answer | Marks |
|----------|--|-------|
| 1 | A3: Part played by media and public and how Mia has changed <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • media manipulation (det. puppet, Diva Mia article, ‘monster in the making’ admitted she had the best voice) [dev. changed attitude to her / criticised her from the start] • Mia better aware of media: (det. did not give interviews, did not want to comment on camera) [dev. more careful of media profile, keen to give her own side] • public were entertained by fake drama (det. enjoy stereotypes: Glamorous Granny, boy band, diva) [dev. some responsibility for media treatment, gallows mentality] • more positive attitude / be nicer to people now (det. signs autographs, treats crew with respect) [dev. understands why she was unpopular, feels guilty, feels ashamed; wants to apologise] • attitude to fame (det. wanted fame previously, no longer seeking fame) [dev: what she is doing now – any one plausible change in lifestyle (anonymous, charity working, career change)] The discriminator is the development of the writer’s opinions and plausible changes in Mia one year later, as this requires candidates to draw inferences. Ideas and opinions must be derived from the passage, developing the implications. | |

Marking Criteria for Question 1

Table A, Reading:

Use the following table to give a mark out of 15 for Reading.

| | |
|--------------------------------|---|
| Band 1: 13–15 | The response reveals a thorough reading of the passage. A wide range of ideas is applied. There is sustained use of supporting detail, which is well integrated into the response, contributing to a strong sense of purpose and approach. Developed ideas are well related to the passage. All three bullets are well covered. |
| Band 2: 10–12 | There is evidence of a competent reading of the passage. Some ideas are developed, but the ability to sustain them may not be consistent. There is frequent supporting detail. The response answers all three bullets, though perhaps not equally well. |
| Band 3: 7–9 | The passage has been read reasonably well , but the response may not reflect the range or complexity of ideas in the original. There may be some mechanical use of the passage. Supporting detail is used occasionally. Opportunities for development are rarely taken and ideas are simply expressed. There is uneven focus on the bullets. |
| Band 4: 4–6 | Some brief, straightforward reference to the passage is made. There is some evidence of general understanding of the main ideas, although the response may be thin or in places lack focus on the passage or the question. One of the bullets may not be addressed. |
| Band 5: 1–3 | The response is either very general , with little reference to the passage, or a reproduction of sections of the original. Content is either insubstantial or unselective. There is little realisation of the need to modify material from the passage. |
| Band 6: 0 | There is little or no relevance to the question or to the passage. |

Table B, Writing: Structure and order, style of language
Use the following table to give a mark out of 5 for Writing.

| | |
|---------------------------|--|
| Band 1 5 | The language of the response sounds convincing and consistently appropriate. Ideas are firmly expressed in a wide range of effective and / or interesting language. Structure and sequence are sound throughout. |
| Band 2 4 | Language is mostly fluent and there is clarity of expression. There is a sufficient range of vocabulary to express ideas with subtlety and precision. The response is mainly well structures and well sequenced. |
| Band 3 3 | Language is clear but comparatively plain and / or factual, expressing little opinion. Ideas are rarely extended, but explanations are adequate. Some sections are quite well sequenced but there may be flaws in structure. |
| Band 4 2 | There may be some awkwardness of expression and some inconsistency of style. Language is too limited to express shades of meaning. There is structural weakness and there may be some copying from the passage. |
| Band 5 1 | Expression and structure lacks clarity. Language is weak and undeveloped. There is very little attempt to explain ideas. There may be frequent copying from the original. |
| Band 6 0 | The response cannot be understood. |

| Question | Answer | Marks |
|----------|---|-----------|
| 2 | This question tests Reading Objective R4 (10 marks): R4 demonstrate understanding of how writers achieve effects  Re-read the descriptions of: (a) Mia’s appearance and attitude in paragraph 3, beginning ‘An hour before the final ...’ (b) the audience reaction and its effect on Mia in paragraph 5, beginning ‘I stepped into a cauldron of noise ...’ Select four powerful words or phrases from each paragraph. Your choices should include imagery. Explain how each word or phrase is used effectively in the context. Write about 200 to 300 words. Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer.  | 10 |
| | General notes This question is marked for the ability to select powerful or unusual words and for an understanding of ways in which the language is effective. Expect responses to provide words (listed in the mark scheme on page 9) that carry connotations additional to general meaning. Mark holistically for the overall quality of the response, not for the number of words chosen, bearing in mind that there should be a range of choices to demonstrate an understanding of how language works for the higher bands, and that this should include the ability to explain images. It is the quality of the analysis that attracts marks. Do not take marks off for inaccurate statements; simply ignore them. The following notes are a guide to what good responses might say about the selections. They can make any sensible comment, but only credit those that are relevant to the correct meanings of the words in the context and that have some validity. Alternative acceptable explanations should be credited. Credit comments on effects created by non-vocabulary choices such as grammar/syntax and punctuation devices. They must be additional to comments on vocabulary. | |

Marking Criteria for Question 2Table A, Reading: Language analysis:

Use the following table to give a mark out of 10 for Reading.

|------------------------------|---|
| Band 1 9–10 | Wide ranging and closely focused discussion of language with some high quality comments that add associations to words in both parts of the question, and demonstrate the writer's reasons for using them. Tackles imagery with some precision and imagination. There is clear evidence that the candidate understands how language works. |
| Band 2 7–8 | Explanations are given of appropriately selected words and phrases, and effects are identified in both parts of the question. Images are recognised as such and the response goes some way to explaining them. There is some evidence that the candidate understands how language works. |
| Band 3 5–6 | A satisfactory attempt is made to identify appropriate words and phrases. The response mostly gives meanings of words and any attempt to suggest and explain effects is basic, vague or very general. One half of the question may be better answered than the other. |
| Band 4 3–4 | The response provides a mixture of appropriate choices and words that communicate less well. The response may correctly identify linguistic or literary devices but not explain why they are used. Explanations of meaning may be few, general, slight or only partially effective. They may repeat the language of the original or do not refer to specific words. |
| Band 5 1–2 | The choice of words is insufficient or rarely relevant. Any comments are inappropriate and the response is very thin. |
| Band 6 0 | The response does not relate to the question. Inappropriate words and phrases are chosen or none are selected. |
