Paper 2 Reading Passages (Extended)

May/June 2018

MARK SCHEME

Maximum Mark: 50

Published

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge International will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge International is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2018 series for most Cambridge IGCSE™, Cambridge International A and AS Level and Cambridge Pre-U components, and some Cambridge O Level components.

IGCSE™ is a registered trademark.

This document consists of 13 printed pages.

Generic Marking Principles

These general marking principles must be applied by all examiners when marking candidate answers. They should be applied alongside the specific content of the mark scheme or generic level descriptors for a question. Each question paper and mark scheme will also comply with these marking principles.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 1:

Marks must be awarded in line with:

- the specific content of the mark scheme or the generic level descriptors for the question
- the specific skills defined in the mark scheme or in the generic level descriptors for the question
- the standard of response required by a candidate as exemplified by the standardisation scripts.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 2:

Marks awarded are always whole marks (not half marks, or other fractions).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 3:

Marks must be awarded positively:

- marks are awarded for correct/valid answers, as defined in the mark scheme. However, credit is given for valid answers which go beyond the scope of the syllabus and mark scheme, referring to your Team Leader as appropriate
- marks are awarded when candidates clearly demonstrate what they know and can do
- marks are not deducted for errors
- marks are not deducted for omissions
- answers should only be judged on the quality of spelling, punctuation and grammar when these features are specifically assessed by the question as indicated by the mark scheme. The meaning, however, should be unambiguous.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 4:

Rules must be applied consistently e.g. in situations where candidates have not followed instructions or in the application of generic level descriptors.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 5:

Marks should be awarded using the full range of marks defined in the mark scheme for the question (however; the use of the full mark range may be limited according to the quality of the candidate responses seen).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 6:

Marks awarded are based solely on the requirements as defined in the mark scheme. Marks should not be awarded with grade thresholds or grade descriptors in mind.

All Examiners are instructed that alternative correct answers and unexpected approaches in candidates' scripts must be given marks that fairly reflect the relevant knowledge and skills demonstrated. Nonetheless, the content must be clearly related to and derived from the passage.

Question	Answer	Marks
1	General notes Candidates should select ideas from the passage (see page 6) and develop them relevantly, supporting what they write with details from the passage. Look for an appropriate register for the genre, which is a formal report to colleagues, and a clear and balanced response which covers the three areas of the question, is well sequenced, and is in the candidate's own words. Annotate A1 for references to the challenges faced by Andrew and what you hoped he would gain from his six weeks at the factory Annotate A2 for references to how different staff members treated Andrew Annotate A3 for references to what you have learned about the thoughts and feelings of the people who work at the company.
	Responses might use the following ideas: A1: the challenges faced by Andrew and what you hoped he would gain from his six weeks at the factory <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • time keeping / waking up early in holidays (det. 7.00am) [dev. more profitable use of time than watching television; learn to be punctual] • having to wear uniform did not like (det. lightest blue) [dev. learn his place / less concerned with appearance / degrading] • remembering packed lunch (det. left on kitchen table day one) [dev. organising himself] • menial / unskilled jobs (det. fetching coffee from machine, moving deliveries) [dev. work ethic / learn value of (hard) work / learn has to start at the bottom] • not saying anything stupid (det. warned him at accounts department, requested salad [dev. think about impression he created]) • spend time with different departments / work with different people (det. grunts, clerks) [dev. learn to fit in / teamwork]

Question	Answer	Marks
1	A2: how different staff members treated Andrew <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • apprentices negative initially / ignore him (det. no skill of use to them) [dev. condescending; see work experience participant(s) as a (potential) threat] • other guys guarded / not friendly (det. spoke more freely when Andrew was not there; some had asked for their sons/daughters to work there in holidays) [dev. resentful of son, might welcome fairer opportunities of an official scheme] • supervisor(s) curt, strict with him (det. surly) [dev. (did not welcome) another responsibility] • older worker(s) kind(er) / more approachable (det. asked and answered questions; told Andrew not to worry) [dev. looking out for him / make apprentices more polite to him] • canteen staff reinforced poor behaviour (det. slopped beans on plate; chuckled about salad comment) [dev. possibly bored with serving same old thing, not taking pride/care in job] • junior clerk teased him (det. smugly) [dev. taking delight in what's in store for son] • pay clerk reminded him of rules (det. told him off for not visiting her office earlier) [dev. maintaining discipline / officious]
	A3: what you learned about the thoughts and feelings of the people who work for the company <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • discontent in workforce (det. strike action) [dev. limited information from Andrew later / reluctant to tell; need to improve morale] • substandard food/canteen (det. narrow range, cramped conditions) [dev. would like it to be more healthy / appealing; more room] • unappealing coffee from machine (det. coffee-brown sludge) [dev. no one likes fetching it] • (scheme to avoid) lateness penalties (det. clocking in and out) [dev. want to be allowed flexibility in start time, feel unfair lose pay; seen as strict, band together] • attitude of the accounts department (det. difficult to access) [dev. overly officious] • hierarchy/special treatment for some (det. apprentices called grunts by more experienced / senior staff, refused work experience to lower ranks' children) [dev. suits / uniforms reflect it / clerk does not feel comfortable visiting factory floor / employees not really 'valued' / need to improve ethos]

Marking Criteria for Question 1

Table A, Reading:

Use the following table to give a mark out of 15 for Reading.

Band 1: 13–15	The response reveals a thorough reading of the passage. A wide range of ideas is applied. There is sustained use of supporting detail, which is well integrated into the response, contributing to a strong sense of purpose and approach. Developed ideas are well related to the passage. All three bullets are well covered.
Band 2: 10–12	There is evidence of a competent reading of the passage. Some ideas are developed, but the ability to sustain them may not be consistent. There is frequent supporting detail. The response answers all three bullets, though perhaps not equally well.
Band 3: 7–9	The passage has been read reasonably well , but the response may not reflect the range or complexity of ideas in the original. There may be some mechanical use of the passage. Supporting detail is used occasionally. Opportunities for development are rarely taken and ideas are simply expressed. There is uneven focus on the bullets.
Band 4: 4–6	Some brief, straightforward reference to the passage is made. There is some evidence of general understanding of the main ideas, although the response may be thin or in places lack focus on the passage or the question. One of the bullets may not be addressed.
Band 5: 1–3	The response is either very general, with little reference to the passage or the question, or a reproduction of sections of the original. Content is insubstantial, or there is little realisation of the need to modify material from the passage.
Band 6: 0	There is very little or no relevance to the question or to the passage, or the response copies unselectively or directly from the passage.

Table B: Writing: Structure and order, style of language
Use the following table to give a mark out of 5 for Writing.

Band 1	5	The language of the response sounds convincing and consistently appropriate. Ideas are firmly expressed in a wide range of effective and/or interesting language. Structure and sequence are sound throughout.
Band 2	4	Language is mostly fluent and there is clarity of expression. There is a sufficient range of vocabulary to express ideas with subtlety and precision. The response is mainly well structured and well sequenced.
Band 3	3	Language is clear but comparatively plain and/or factual, expressing little opinion. Ideas are rarely extended, but explanations are adequate. Some sections are quite well sequenced but there may be flaws in structure.
Band 4	2	There may be some awkwardness of expression and some inconsistency of style. Language is too limited to express shades of meaning. There is structural weakness and there may be some copying from the passage.
Band 5	1	Expression and structure lacks clarity. Language is weak and undeveloped. There is very little attempt to explain ideas. There may be frequent copying from the original.
Band 6	0	The response cannot be understood.

Question	Answer	Marks
2	This question tests Reading Objective R4 (10 marks): R4 demonstrate understanding of how writers achieve effects
	Re-read the descriptions of: (a) Andrew’s first experience of the canteen in paragraph 5, beginning ‘At the canteen ...’ (b) the visit to the Accounts Department in paragraph 7, beginning ‘After only 20 minutes ...’ Select four powerful words or phrases from each paragraph. Your choices should include imagery. Explain how each word or phrase is used effectively in the context. Write about 200 to 300 words. Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer.	10
	General notes This question is marked for the ability to select powerful or unusual words and for an understanding of ways in which the language is effective. Expect responses to provide words that carry connotations additional to general meaning. Mark holistically for the overall quality of the response, not for the number of words chosen, bearing in mind that there should be a range of choices to demonstrate an understanding of how language works for the higher bands, and that this should include the ability to explain images. It is the quality of the analysis that attracts marks. Do not take marks off for inaccurate statements; simply ignore them. The following notes are a guide to what good responses might say about the selections. They can make any sensible comment, but only credit those that are relevant to the correct meanings of the words in the context and that have some validity. Alternative acceptable explanations should be credited. Credit comments on effects created by non-vocabulary choices such as grammar/syntax and punctuation devices. They must be additional to comments on vocabulary.

Table A, Reading: Language analysis:

Use the following table to give a mark out of 10 for Reading.

Band 1	9–10	Wide ranging and closely focused discussion of language with some high quality comments that add associations to words in both parts of the question, and demonstrate the writer's reasons for using them. Tackles imagery with some precision and imagination. There is clear evidence that the candidate understands how language works.
Band 2	7–8	Explanations are given of appropriately selected words and phrases, and effects are identified in both parts of the question. Images are recognised as such and the response goes some way to explaining them. There is some evidence that the candidate understands how language works.
Band 3	5–6	A satisfactory attempt is made to identify appropriate words and phrases. The response mostly gives meanings of words and any attempt to suggest and explain effects is basic, vague or very general. One half of the question may be better answered than the other.
Band 4	3–4	The response provides a mixture of appropriate choices and words that communicate less well. The response may correctly identify linguistic or literary devices but not explain why they are used. Explanations of meaning may be few, general, slight or only partially effective. They may repeat the language of the original or do not refer to specific words.
Band 5	1–2	The choice of words is insufficient or rarely relevant. Any comments are inappropriate and the response is very thin.
Band 6	0	The response does not relate to the question. Inappropriate words and phrases are chosen or none are selected.

For valid choices of words, tick in the body of the response. For imprecise or incomplete choices or explanation, use ^. For meaning annotate EXP in the margin and for effect (i.e. responses evoked in the reader) annotate + in the margin. Indicate overview with O.

Question	Answer	Marks
3(a)	Reading content for Question 3(a) Give 1 mark per point listed below, up to a maximum of 15. What the miners found frightening or distressing about conditions working in the mine: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 lack of fresh air 2 (daily) potential for disaster 3 when the cage first drops / when cage dropped (away) 4 technical malfunction / equipment unreliable / brakes failing / winder not working (again) / sporadic winder / electric circuit failure 5 long journey down / depth of pit / hundreds of metres down / journey down into the large cavity / journey down into a cavity the size of three double-decker buses 6 the moments just before the descent / the tension / hanging there / knowing you're going to go down / the thought of what is to come / anticipation 7 feeling of (uncontrolled) falling / (rope) falling off quicker (in some places) / hurtling down shaft 8 cramped cage / small cage / in a packed, iron box / in a small iron box 9 vomiting 10 dismissive attitude of those in charge / failure of management to recognise danger / management unconcerned / inadequate safety procedures 11 awareness of death / dying / other people having died there / loitering presence of death 12 (thick) dust 13 lack of light / darkness / dingy / only oil lamps as light source 14 boulders above you / being crushed by falling boulders / tunnel collapse 15 seam averaged a metre high / unable to stand up in seam / working on your knees / on your knees all day 16 being trapped (in small space between rocks) / being caught (in cramped spaces) / unable to get out 17 shadowy images / reminders of childhood horrors / feeling of being divorced from reality / world seeming curiouser and curiouser 18 having to go back again and again / do it for years / decades ahead / fear lasting for 40 years / fear never really goes [Do not accept quotation only: 'The first forty years are the hardest']
3(a)	Notes: Although lifting of words and phrases from the passage is acceptable, candidates should show evidence of understanding and selection by clearly focusing on the key details. Over-lengthy lifting (e.g. of whole sections containing a number of points) should not be credited. Where errors of grammar / spelling seriously affect the accuracy of an idea, the point should not be awarded.

B Quality of Writing: concision, focus and use of own words
Use the following table to give a mark out of 5 for Writing.

Band 1	5	The response is well focused on the passage and the question. All points are expressed clearly, concisely and fluently, and in the candidate's own words (where appropriate) throughout.
Band 2	4	Most points are made clearly and concisely. Own words (where appropriate) are used consistently. The summary is mostly focused but may have a redundant introduction or conclusion.
Band 3	3	There are some areas of conciseness. There may be occasional loss of focus or clarity. Own words (where appropriate) are used for most of the summary. Responses may be list-like or not well sequenced.
Band 4	2	The summary is sometimes focused, but it may include comment, repetition, unnecessarily long explanation or lifted phrases.
Band 5	1	The summary is unfocused or wordy. It may be answered in the wrong form (e.g. narrative, commentary or as notes). There may be frequent lifting of phrases and sentences.
Band 6	0	Excessive lifting; no focus. The response cannot be understood or consists entirely of the words of the passage.
