F Travel journalism

In recent years, there has been an increase in the number of books written and television programmes made about travel.

Discuss this development with the Examiner.

Please use the following ideas to help develop the conversation:

- any books or articles you have read about travelling, or programmes you have seen
- which place you would choose to write about or to make a programme about
- what can be learned from other people's experiences of travelling
- ways in which travel journalism could be used to highlight environmental or social issues
- the suggestion that we cannot entirely believe all we read or see.

G The medical world

Healthcare concerns us all, and includes medical treatment as well as ways to prevent illnesses.

Discuss this topic with the Examiner.

Please use the following ideas to help develop the conversation:

- what you do to avoid illness
- whether or not you would like to be a doctor, and why
- the idea that it's better to spend public money on preventing illnesses rather than curing them
- the view that it's much more difficult to remain healthy in the modern world than ever before
- the suggestion that prolonging life should not be the main aim of medicine.

You are free to consider any other related ideas of your own.
