Read Text C, Our big red bus ride, in the insert and then answer Questions 2(a)–(d) on this question paper.

Question 2

(a) Identify a word or phrase from the text which suggests the same idea as the words underlined:

(i) Any interested person watching might notice that this large bus was different from the buses they sometimes saw in their country.

..... [1]

(ii) The bus company was still really helpful after the bus had been sold.

..... [1]

(iii) The disastrous end to their journey was when the bus ended up in a river.

..... [1]

(iv) The writer and their fellow travellers showed incredible immaturity to think that they could make such a journey without mishap.

..... [1]

(b) Using your own words, explain what the writer means by each of the words underlined:

It's difficult to envisage how cut off from our previous lives we were back then. Mobile phones and emails weren't yet invented. There was no internet linking different countries and cultures. To phone home was expensive and public phones weren't easy to find. I was away two years and managed to phone home twice.

(i) envisage [1]

(ii) linking [1]

(iii) expensive [1]

- (c) Use one example from the text below to explain how the writer suggests the attitude of the owner of the orange juice.

Use your own words in your explanation.

This is the story of that big, red double-decker bus. This isn't a children's story, and if you try reading it to children, they'll soon lose interest in the increasingly petty details of our daily life. In one early letter to my parents, I wrote: 'We had yet another meeting yesterday to sort out grievances.' This latest inquest had been into who'd drunk someone's orange juice from the fridge. The devastated owner knew some had been 'stolen' because he'd marked the level of the liquid in the bottle.
