READ THESE INSTRUCTIONS FIRST

An answer booklet is provided inside this question paper. You should follow the instructions on the front cover of the answer booklet. If you need additional answer paper ask the test administrator for a continuation booklet.

This paper has two sections. Answer all the questions in one section:

Section A: Native Americans, West of the Mississippi, 1840–1890 (pages 2–3)

OR

Section B: The Presidency of Harry S. Truman, 1945–1953: Domestic and Foreign Policy (pages 4–5)

Each topic has two parts, Part A and Part B. You are advised to spend 1 hour answering Part A and 30 minutes answering Part B. The time allowed for the examination includes sufficient time to read all the sources and the questions for one section.

The number of points is given in brackets [] at the end of each question or part question.

This document consists of 5 printed pages, 3 blank pages and 2 inserts.

Section A: Native Americans, West of the Mississippi, 1840–1890

Study the Background Information below and then answer all the questions. Use your knowledge to help you interpret and evaluate the sources, as appropriate.

Background Information

Native American society was communal and tribal. Tribes competed with, and sometimes fought against, each other. Despite their differences, most Native Americans shared common values and organized their lives in similar ways. Most white men did not share these values and the majority failed to understand or appreciate Native American society.

Part A: Native American Society

You are advised to spend 1 hour answering Questions 1 to 4.

1. Study Source A.

In what ways was the horse important to Native Americans on the plains? Explain your answer using details from the source and your knowledge. [6]

2. Study Source B.

Does this account support the view that the religious practices of Native Americans were “barbaric”? Explain your answer using details from the source and your knowledge. [7]

3. Study Source C.

How reliable is this source about the care of the weak and needy in Native American society? Explain your answer using details from the source and your knowledge. [7]

4. Study Sources D and E.
