

(b) Invocation (dua) is highly recommended immediately after obligatory prayer. Why do you think that is? [4]

- It is done in distress and shows our dependence in Allah
- Allah says : “And your Lord said: "Invoke Me, I will respond to your (invocation)”
- After prayer one is in state of Wudu and directing to Qibla that is the best possible time to ask for what one wishes
- Dua has chances of acceptance if done after prayer
