Question 1

Read carefully the poem in which the poet describes feelings of anger.

Anger

The anger is like a demon trying to escape into your spirit, it claws at your insides a darkness that relishes 5 the pain it will cause. If you keep it in the pit of your stomach if you hold it inside your ribcage for too long it will take your tongue prisoner 10 when you least suspect it and terrorise everyone you love. This fiend, this cruel thing it can be defeated. 15 it does not own you it deserves no space inside your spirit. Instead. 20 channel it, find a way to let it out cry, dance, sing, build, create, do everything you can to give it a way out. 25 Take everything that tries to destroy you curse you, and turn it into something beautiful by incantation1. 30

¹incantation: using words as a spell

(a) How does the poet vividly portray anger in the first two stanzas? [15]

(b) How does the poet strikingly present ways of managing strong emotions in the final two stanzas? [15]
