3 Traduisez en français:

Michel was enjoying himself with several of his friends at a restaurant in Valence where they were celebrating his twentieth birthday. Everyone had eaten too much and when they left the restaurant it was very late and he had a train to catch.

Michel said goodbye to the others in front of the building and walked quickly towards the station as his train would be leaving in ten minutes. He bought his ticket and sat down on a bench to wait.

The train arrived and Michel got into an empty compartment. After spending the evening eating, he was very tired. He tried reading a magazine which he had bought earlier but, a few minutes later, he fell asleep.

Suddenly, he woke up. The train had started to slow down. He must have arrived at his destination, a small town situated between Valence and Avignon. He looked out of the window but was surprised because he did not recognize anything.

The train stopped opposite a sign on which he could see the name Avignon. Horrified, he realized that he had missed his stop and was now far from home. In future, he would not eat so much at
