International General Certificate of Secondary Education

MARK SCHEME for the October/November 2010 question paper for the guidance of teachers

0510 ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

0510/12 Paper 1 (Reading and Writing – Core), maximum raw mark 56

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes must be read in conjunction with the question papers and the report on the examination.

- CIE will not enter into discussions or correspondence in connection with these mark schemes.

CIE is publishing the mark schemes for the October/November 2010 question papers for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level syllabuses and some Ordinary Level syllabuses.

Exercise 4 Multi-tasking

Note: correct responses only apply if they are placed under the correct heading (as detailed below). Add the correct answers to give a total out of 6.

Remember that this exercise is marked for content (reading), not language.

Examples of multi-tasking activities at home (max 3 marks this heading)

- 1 texting (friends) / reading text messages
- 2 making toast
- 3 surfing on computer / internet activities (not 'computers' on its own)
- 4 conversations with family
- 5 updating social network sites
- 6 downloading (and listening to) music

What was different ten years ago (max 3 marks this heading)

- 7 took 31 hours to do what we now do in 24
- 8 (old fashioned) email (systems)
- 9 (old fashioned) mobile phones
- 10 life was (much) simpler (idea of 'life' must be there – not 'it was simpler')
- 11 more talking face to face
- 12 more time spent over dinner / more time spent doing nothing

Exercise 5 Multi-tasking summary

This exercise is marked for language, not content, but if content is entirely irrelevant to the task, a mark of zero should be awarded.

Count words and do not mark anything exceeding 70 words, as specified in the question. Candidates will not be assessed on anything they have written after this limit, but will not be penalised per se for exceeding it.

- 0 marks meaning obscure because of density of language errors and serious problems with expression / nothing of relevance
- 1 mark expression weak / reliance on lifting from the passage
- 2 marks expression limited / reliance on copying out the notes, but some sense of order
- 3 marks expression good, with attempts to group and sequence ideas in own words
- 4 marks expression very good: clear, orderly grouping and sequencing, largely own words

Exercise 6 Visit to city

Tolerate any interpretation of a 'city' but time span should be comparable to the length of a week. If the candidate clearly writes about a longer period then for content it would be 'partly relevant' and 'some engagement with the task.'

Exercise 7 Full-time work

For a 'satisfactory attempt to address the topic' (band 4 / 5) candidates need to engage with the idea of full-time work.

The following general instructions, and table of marking criteria, apply to both exercises.

- Content covers relevance (i.e. whether the piece fulfils the task and the awareness of purpose / audience / register) and the development of ideas (i.e. the detail / explanation provided and how enjoyable it is to read).
- Language covers style (i.e. complexity of vocabulary and sentence structure) and accuracy (of grammar, spelling, punctuation and use of paragraphs).
- When deciding on a mark for content or language, first of all decide which mark band is most appropriate. There will not necessarily be an exact fit. Then decide between 2 marks within that mark band. Use the lower mark if it only just makes it into the band and the upper mark if it fulfils all the requirements of the band but doesn't quite make it into the band above.
- When deciding on a mark for content, look at both relevance and development of ideas. First ask yourself whether the writing fulfils the task, in terms of points to be covered and the length. If it does, it will be in the 4–5 mark band.
- When deciding on a mark for language, look at both the style and the accuracy of the language. A useful starting point would be first to determine whether errors intrude. If they do not, it will be in the 4–5 mark band.
- The use of paragraphs should not be the primary basis of deciding which mark band the work is in. Look first at the language used and once you have decided on the appropriate mark band, you can use the paragraphing as a factor in helping you to decide whether the work warrants the upper or lower mark in the mark band.
- If the essay is considerably shorter than the stated word length, it is unlikely to gain a high mark for content.
- If the essay is totally irrelevant and has nothing to do with the question asked, it should be given 0 marks for Content and Language, even if it is enjoyable to read and fluent.
- If the essay is partly relevant and therefore in mark band 2–3, the full range of marks for language is available.
