- (c) 'The Treaty of Versailles was a fair settlement.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

6 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

The Sudetenland is the last problem that must be solved and it will be solved. It is the last territorial claim which I have to make in Europe.

The aims of our foreign policy are not unlimited. They are grounded on the determination to save the German people. Ten million Germans found themselves beyond the frontiers of the Reich. They wished to join their homeland.

Hitler speaking in Berlin, September 1938.

- (a) What did Hitler achieve by the Anschluss? [5]
- (b) Why did Hitler want to take over Czechoslovakia? [7]
- (c) 'The policy of appeasement was a mistake.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

7 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

I believe that it must be the policy of the United States to support free peoples who are resisting attempted takeover by armed minorities or by outside pressures. The free peoples of the world look to us for support in maintaining those freedoms. If we falter in our leadership, we may endanger the peace of the world.

US President Truman explaining his decision to help Greece, March 1947.

- (a) What decisions, in relation to Germany, were agreed at Yalta and Potsdam? [5]
- (b) Why was the Truman Doctrine significant? [7]
- (c) 'It was the Soviet expansion in Eastern Europe that caused the Cold War.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

- 8 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

We agreed to remove our missiles and bombers on condition that the President of the USA promised there would be no invasion of Cuba by the forces of the United States. Finally Kennedy gave in and agreed to give us such an assurance. It was a great victory for us, a spectacular success without having to fire a single shot.

From Khrushchev's memoirs published in 1971.

- (a) Describe the immediate impact on US–Cuban relations (up to January 1961) of Castro coming to power. [5]
- (b) Why did the Bay of Pigs (April 1961) invasion result in humiliation for Kennedy? [7]
