MARK SCHEME

General Marking Instructions

Introduction

Mark schemes are published to assist teachers and students in their preparation for examinations. Through the mark schemes teachers and students will be able to see what examiners are looking for in response to questions and exactly where the marks have been awarded. The publishing of the mark schemes may help to show that examiners are not concerned about finding out what a student does not know but rather with rewarding students for what they do know.

The Purpose of Mark Schemes

Examination papers are set and revised by teams of examiners and revisers appointed by the Council. The teams of examiners and revisers include experienced teachers who are familiar with the level and standards expected of students in schools and colleges.

The job of the examiners is to set the questions and the mark schemes; and the job of the revisers is to review the questions and mark schemes commenting on a large range of issues about which they must be satisfied before the question papers and mark schemes are finalised.

The questions and the mark schemes are developed in association with each other so that the issues of differentiation and positive achievement can be addressed right from the start. Mark schemes, therefore, are regarded as part of an integral process which begins with the setting of questions and ends with the marking of the examination.

The main purpose of the mark scheme is to provide a uniform basis for the marking process so that all the markers are following exactly the same instructions and making the same judgements in so far as this is possible. Before marking begins a standardising meeting is held where all the markers are briefed using the mark scheme and samples of the students' work in the form of scripts. Consideration is also given at this stage to any comments on the operational papers received from teachers and their organisations. During this meeting, and up to and including the end of the marking, there is provision for amendments to be made to the mark scheme. What is published represents this final form of the mark scheme.

It is important to recognise that in some cases there may well be other correct responses which are equally acceptable to those published: the mark scheme can only cover those responses which emerged in the examination. There may also be instances where certain judgements may have to be left to the experience of the examiner, for example, where there is no absolute correct response – all teachers will be familiar with making such judgements.

Tá daoine eile arm, áfach, nach mbeadh sásta pingin rua a (d) thabhairt do na cumainn (e) charthanachta mar bíonn siad den bharúil go dtéann (f) mórchuid an airgid le tuarastail na bpríomhfheidhmeannach a dhíol agus nach dtéann ach sciar beag den airgead chuig na daoine atá ar an (g) ghannchuid.

Cuirtear i leith na gcumann fosta go dtéann cuid mhór airgid i dtreo an riaracháin agus go bhfuil (h) dallamullóg á cur, ní hamháin ar na daoine a thugann airgead, ach ar na daoine a sheasann amuigh faoin fhearthainn lá i ndiaidh lae ag tógáil airgid.

4 Translation into Target Language

Notes to Examiners

- 1 This mark scheme should be read in conjunction with the Instructions to Assistant Examiners, in particular the references to annotation of candidates' work.
- 2 To facilitate marking, the text can be divided into six sections. Mark off these sections within the script before starting to mark. The total number of marks available for the question [20] has been tripled to a working total of 60 marks. The translation should be assessed by applying the description of performance grid, set out below, in each of the six sections. Examiners are asked to place each section in a band and award a mark. To facilitate totalling, that mark should be recorded as a sub-total in the right-hand margin, level with section slash.

Insert the total at the end of the translation. Divide by 3 to give a mark out of twenty; the final mark should be transferred, ringed, to the top right-hand corner of the candidate's script.

$\frac{1}{3}$ should be rounded down and $\frac{2}{3}$ should be rounded up.

- 3 Ticks over relevant section(s) must indicate positive marks to be awarded. Errors should be underlined, infelicities indicated by a wavy line. Ticks should indicate where marks are being awarded. If alternatives are offered, only the first should be credited.
- 4 Credit should be given for other valid responses not set out in "Suggested Translation".

Band	AO3 Description of Performance	Marks

3	Satisfactory attempt overall and more than half of the information has been accurately conveyed.	5–6
2	Limited in terms of language. Inaccuracies may be frequent and serious. Less than half the information has been conveyed. Some use of English evident.	3–4
1	Little or no attempt to comply with the demands of the task. Gaps are evident with over-dependence on use of English.	0–2

4 Translation Grid for the Mark Scheme

The translation is divided into 6 sections. Each section is worth 10 marks.
The total is then divided by 3 to give a mark out of 20.

1	Are you addicted to technology? Do you sometimes spend hours looking at your phone?	An bhfuil tú gafa le teicneolaíocht? An gcaitheann tú uaireanta in amanna ag amharc ar do ghuthán?
2	It is said that there are many people all over the world who cannot be without their smartphone.	Deirtear go bhfuil cuid mhór daoine ar fud an domhain nach dtig leo bheith gan a nguthán cliste.
3	Doctors often say that some people prefer to play computer games than to discuss their problems.	Deir na dochtúirí go minic gur fearr le daoine áirithe cluichí ríomhaire a imirt ná a gcuid fadhbanna a phlé.
4	Like alcohol or drugs, technology can harm relationships with family and friends.	Ar nós an alcóil agus na ndrugaí, thig leis an teicneolaíocht dochar a dhéanamh do chaidrimh le teaghlach agus le cairde.
5	Young people especially can lose sleep time because of using technology at night.	Thig le daoine óga go háirithe uaireanta codlata a chailleadh de dheasca úsáid teicneolaíochta san oíche.
6	If you get very anxious when you cannot find your phone, perhaps you are an addict too!	Má éiríonn tú an-imníoch nuair nach dtig leat teacht ar do ghuthán, b'fhéidir gur andúileach tú (féin) fosta!
