Section A

Answer two questions from this section

- 1 (a) With reference to particular examples from Luke's Gospel, discuss the methodology of Redaction Criticism. [30]

(b) Critically assess the view that Biblical Criticism is a useful, but not essential tool for the student of Luke's Gospel. [20]

- 2 (a) With reference to selected parables and miracles, analyse Jesus' teaching about the Kingdom of God in Luke's Gospel. [30]

(b) Critically evaluate the claim that the parables of Jesus were more challenging for his original audience than his miracles. [20]

- 3 (a) Outline and explain the teaching on the call to discipleship and its demands in Luke's Gospel. [30]

(b) Critically assess the claim that this view of discipleship has little meaning for the modern reader. [20]

4 “Jesus was the bringer of good news and joy.”

(a) With reference to this statement, discuss the main features of Luke’s portrayal of Jesus. [30]

(b) Critically evaluate the view that Jesus’ example of compassion provides the greatest difficulty for the religious believer. [20]

Section B

Synoptic Assessment

Theme: Sin

You must answer this question

- 5 (a) With reference to at least two different areas of study, outline and examine some key ideas on the nature and importance of sin. [30]
- (b) Critically assess the claim that not all sin can be forgiven. You should refer to other aspects of human experience in your answer. [20]
