Section A

Answer two questions from this section

- 1 (a) With reference to two moral examples, analyse the application of Virtue Ethics to ethical decision making. [30]
- (b) Critically assess the view that the major weakness of Virtue Ethics is its relativist character. [20]
- 2 (a) With particular reference to religious teaching and the Declaration of Human Rights, discuss how poverty is destructive of human well being. [30]
- (b) Critically evaluate the claim that there is no moral difference between letting people die through poverty and actually killing them. [20]
- 3 (a) "Violence, even lethal violence, is sometimes necessary in order to protect innocent people."
Discuss a Pacifist response to this statement. [30]
- (b) Critically assess the claim that war is never just. [20]
- 4 (a) With particular reference to relevant religious and ethical teaching, explain the justification for the death penalty on the basis of retribution. [30]
- (b) Critically evaluate the view that the death penalty is morally unacceptable and always inhumane. [20]

Section B

Synoptic Assessment

Theme: Religion and State

You must answer this question

- 5 (a) With reference to at least two different areas of study, outline and consider the contribution of some key people to the debate on the relationship between Religion and the State. [30]
- (b) Critically assess the claim that religious faith and morality should always be protected by the State. You should refer to other aspects of human experience in your answer. [20]
