Section A

Answer two questions from this section

- 1 (a) With reference to 1 Corinthians, clarify Paul's teaching on marriage. [20]
- (b) "Paul's teaching on marriage and immorality in 1 Corinthians no longer serves the needs of Christians today."
- To what extent is this statement true? [30]
- 2 (a) Analyse Paul's defence of his apostleship in his Letter to the Galatians. [20]
- (b) "Paul's teaching on Christian freedom and life in the Spirit in Galatians provides a valuable code for moral living."
- Critically assess the truth of this statement. [30]
- 3 (a) Explain Paul's teaching on "spiritual warfare" in Ephesians. [20]
- (b) With reference to Ephesians and one other Letter, critically assess the extent to which it is true that Paul's sole aim was to be a shepherd to the Church. [30]

Section B

Synoptic Assessment

Theme: Controversy, Division and Reconciliation

You must answer this question

- 4 (a) "Religious texts provide a sound basis for morality where there is moral conflict."

Present a case for this statement. You must support your answer with reference to at least one other unit of study. [20]

- (b) "Religious morality must remain constant in spite of surrounding social change."

Critically evaluate this view. You must refer to other aspects of human experience in your answer. [30]
