Work and Childcare

A child may have poor health and will require support from parents until they get better. The parent may have difficulty taking the child to hospital appointments, which can be very stressful.

The birth of a new baby is a very exciting time and a mother has many decisions to make including how to manage work and childcare for the baby. The mother may return to work after maternity leave or decide to take a career break.

The birth of a new baby presents many emotional challenges for young parents such as a lack of sleep, less time to spend with each other, and the expense of new clothes and equipment.
