Mark Scheme for June 2018

OCR (Oxford Cambridge and RSA) is a leading UK awarding body, providing a wide range of qualifications to meet the needs of candidates of all ages and abilities. OCR qualifications include AS/A Levels, Diplomas, GCSEs, Cambridge Nationals, Cambridge Technicals, Functional Skills, Key Skills, Entry Level qualifications, NVQs and vocational qualifications in areas such as IT, business, languages, teaching/training, administration and secretarial skills.

It is also responsible for developing new specifications to meet national requirements and the needs of students and teachers. OCR is a not-for-profit organisation; any surplus made is invested back into the establishment to help towards the development of qualifications and support, which keep pace with the changing needs of today's society.

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and students, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which marks were awarded by examiners. It does not indicate the details of the discussions which took place at an examiners' meeting before marking commenced.

All examiners are instructed that alternative correct answers and unexpected approaches in candidates' scripts must be given marks that fairly reflect the relevant knowledge and skills demonstrated.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the published question papers and the report on the examination.

Subject Specific Marking Instructions

- a. A page of music manuscript is included at the end of the Question Paper. Check this page for answers (e.g. music examples for Section C) and annotate, (e.g. tick if relevant/accurate, 'Seen' if no credit given). Music examples are not required but may be used to support a point in the answer or show knowledge or familiarity with the music.
- b. Music conventions at this level include:
 - superscript is used to indicate the number of a beat within a bar (e.g. bar 3⁴ is the fourth beat of bar 3)
 - lower case letters / Roman numerals indicate minor keys/chords (e.g. a is A minor, ii is a minor chord)
 - chords may be written as Roman numerals (I, II, ii etc.) or guitar symbols (C, D, Dm), with the usual notation for inversions and extensions.
- c. Learners are expected to be familiar with the technical language used to discuss music at this level and to use appropriate musical vocabulary and terminology related to the Areas of Study.
- d. Answers in the mark scheme below are mainly in list form (e.g. bullet-point lists). The lists are intended to show a range of possible answers to a question. Candidates are not expected to provide all the answers in the list in order to get full marks. Nor are the lists intended to be exhaustive. Your Team Leader will provide guidance on the application of the mark scheme and on the treatment of unexpected but relevant answers.

3	(a) Answers may refer to: TEXTURE: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bars 200 – 209: Polyphonic, 3-part. Movement in 3rds between flute and 1st oboe, 2nd oboe provides the bass. • Bars 210 – 216: Homophonic / melody and accompaniment. Melody doubled in octaves, harmonised in thirds. Accompaniment of chords in minims (bars 210-211). Countermelody in bass (bars 211²- 214). • Bars 216² – 219: Antiphonal exchanges between 3-part chords in woodwind and the full orchestra. • Bars 222 – 225: Melody and accompaniment, with sustained chords; then with chords in broken quavers (bars 226 – 233); with chords as staccato quavers (bars 233² – 235). • Bars 235² – 237: Melody harmonised a tenth below. TIMBRE: Only one flute line/part (2 flutes in some editions) but two oboes and two bassoons. Horns and trumpets have a limited number of notes available (notes of harmonic series), play together as a section in tutti passages (with timpani). Cellos and double basses have same music (basses play an octave lower), apart from bars 235² - 238. Contrast / antiphony between sections of the orchestra, important role of upper woodwind in this symphony: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bars 200 – 209: Woodwind only, high / bright sound (ref. no strings, no low bass). Flute melody at top of range, oboe 1 a third below from bar 203. Oboe 2 has moving (bass) line underneath. • Bars 210 – 216: Tutti / full orchestra. Melody on flute (octave higher), oboe and violin 1. Brass have minim chords. 2nd violin and 2nd oboe play a third below melody. Bass line underneath on bassoon and cello. Bars 210-211: violin 2 has triple stopping. Timpani used for emphasis in this section. • Bars 218 – 220: Antiphonal exchanges between woodwind and strings/brass. 	10	9-10 marks: Answer makes detailed comments on both textures and timbres and identifies a range of relevant locations where these occur; precise detail provided. Both aspects, texture and timbre are addressed in detail. 7-8 marks: Answer makes clear comments on both features of texture and timbre throughout the extract with either some clear musical detail and locations or precise detail on some features. 5-6 marks: Answer makes relevant comments about texture and timbre in the extract with either suitable identification of some locations or clear comments and detail on some features of texture or timbre. 3-4 marks: Answer makes some relevant comments on texture and/or timbre and identifies some features and locations. 1–2 marks: Answer makes comments on texture and/or timbre with superficial evidence and lacking precision in its detail. 0 marks: Answer makes no accurate or relevant comment on the music.

3	(b) Answers may refer to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 12 Symphonies written for Salomon’s concert series in London. ‘Military’ written during second visit, 1794-5. • The symphonies were an instant sensation – the most popular and most played at that time. Haydn had fully developed his style by this stage and shows a mature symphonic approach in these works. • Subscription concerts, enthusiastic audience. England had a wealthy middle-class (larger than in Vienna) - Haydn was writing music directly for a paying audience. Public approval or disapproval determined the success or failure of a work (ref. compare with his long relationship with patron/employer, Prince Esterházy). • Haydn liked to please his audiences, e.g. imaginative/striking musical/pictorial effects. Audiences in London often demanded repeats of movements if they liked it. He had good newspaper reviews – different to the continent. During his trips to London he received unaccustomed adulation and money; it was important to please the public. • Writing for a large orchestra – nearly twice the size of the orchestra at Esterháza. Salomon, impresario / leader of the orchestra in London was good musician and important influence. Talented/skilled musicians, often professionals, English and from the Continent (e.g. G.B. Viotti, violin/leader for Haydn’s second visit). Wind players were good, given bold and original parts, written to show off their ability. 	10	9-10 marks: Answer makes detailed comments on Military and/or London symphonies, consistently linked to relevant background to Haydn’s visits to England; identifies specific features, e.g. from Military symphony and/or other symphonies; precise detail provided. 7-8 marks: Answer makes clear comments on Military and/or London symphonies, linked to some relevant background to Haydn’s visits to England; identifies some specific features, e.g. from Military symphony and/or other symphonies; some precise detail provided. 5-6 marks: Answer makes some comments on Military and/or London symphonies, with some background to Haydn’s visits to England, not always clearly linked to the music; identifies some features, e.g. from Military symphony and/or other symphonies; some detail provided, not always precise or accurate. 3-4 marks: Answer makes a few accurate comments on Military and/or London symphonies and background to Haydn’s visits to England, some knowledge but rather general or inconsistent; identifies two or three features,

Question	Answer	Mark	Guidance
	Detailed features may include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Slow introductions (in all except No. 95) • Slow movements often end with forte chords instead of soft ending (e.g. No. 97) • Special effects to please audiences: e.g. ‘Surprise’ chord in No. 94, ‘Clock’ ticking movement in No. 101, ‘Drum Roll’ in No. 103 – opening solo of timpani roll • ‘Turkish’ percussion (movts. 2 and 4) and pictorial effects (march-like melody) in Military. • Greater use of woodwind – typical examples in Military with woodwind solos. All later symphonies (from Nos. 99 to 104) have clarinets, apart from No. 102. Wind band passage in No. 97 has striking solo passages for woodwind, brass and timpani. • Brass and timpani as soloists, e.g. Military 2nd movement, coda with trumpet fanfare and crescendo drum roll. Also references to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dramatic key changes, e.g. start of development in Military in Bb major, not D major as expected. Dramatic contrasts in minor keys, e.g. Nos. 96 and 93. • Recapitulation cut short in Military – to make a dramatic end to movement with longer coda. • Structure/resourceful treatment of thematic ideas, e.g. monothematic in Military; No. 98 has Adagio in tonic minor with principal theme of Allegro at half speed. Ref. tuneful/memorable/popular melodies, e.g. related to folk song. • Orchestral techniques, e.g. sul ponticello in No. 97. • Contrasts of louds and softs, e.g. Military, second movement. • Dynamics: e.g. dramatic silences (2 bars at beginning of development in Military; also No. 95, 1st movement and Minuet); large/ominous crescendo (e.g. Adagio in Military). • Off-beat accents - to make audience sit up and listen, e.g. the repeated cadences in transition of Military. Credit any other valid observations.		e.g. from Military symphony and/or other symphonies; limited detail and/or some inaccuracy. 1–2 marks: Answer makes a few comments on Military and/or London symphonies and/or background to Haydn’s visits to England, some knowledge but superficial; identifies one or two features, e.g. from Military symphony and/or other symphonies; very limited detail and accuracy. 0 marks: Answer makes no accurate or relevant comment on the music or background. Answers must comment on context (e.g. London, audience, performers) to gain marks in the 5-6 band or higher. Answers must refer to examples from the music to gain marks in the 7-8 band or higher.

Question	Answer	Mark	Guidance
4 (a)	Answers may refer to: MELODY: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Rising phrase at beginning – optimism • Uses mainly chord notes. • Repeated melody, slight differences, for second phrase. • Next phrase - goes to Bb in higher register for emphasis of the word 'freedom', e.g. strength/empowerment/emancipation of individual and/or race/sex/class, ref. Simone's association with civil rights movement • 'It's a new dawn' etc. – sequential melody to provide emphasis – each phrase starts with 'it's a'. Each repeat is higher again, increasing confidence in the future • Last phrase has descending movement for contrast. Also melisma. • Free time section/Coda has long improvised vocal (provides contrast). Scat/improvised syllables, build up to faster movement. Starts low and moves to higher range – strength, optimism, defiance, statement of African-American identity in adding jazz/scat break to a stage musical song. • Returns to lyrics 'I'm feeling good' for last line. Emphasis on these words with some use of melisma on last phrase. HARMONY: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Repeated 4 bars phrase used – stability, firm statement. • Bass line/riff falls by step • Harmony change on 3rd phrase with bass descending further over repeated Gm chord. • Perfect cadence is delayed by use of C9 / Gm/C ('for me') / interrupted cadence (Dsus – C9) and doesn't resolve fully until last words of verse. • Coda: new chords used for improvised vocals. All added note chords, predominantly 9ths. Together with sustained chords provides a tense and dramatic feel, building up suspense before return of the 4-chord riff for ending. 	10	9-10 marks: Specific evidence of understanding of musical features to express meaning of words, linked to perceptive and detailed examples. Answer identifies a range of different examples from all three aspects of melody, harmony and tonality; precise detail provided. 7-8 marks: A range of relevant evidence of musical features to express meaning of words. Answer identifies different examples from at least two aspects of melody, harmony and tonality. Perceptive, detailed and effective examples and evidence provided. 5-6 marks: Relevant evidence of musical features to express meaning of words. Answer identifies different examples from at least two aspects of melody, harmony and tonality. Some detail but perhaps not always consistent. 3-4 marks: Some relevant evidence of musical features, discussing a few aspects of melody and/or harmony and/or tonality. An attempt to provide understanding of how they express the words. 1–2 marks: Limited and/or basic relevant evidence of musical features of melody and/or harmony and/or tonality but with little or no attempt to provide understanding of how they express the words. 0 marks: No relevant evidence offered. Answer makes no accurate or relevant comment on the music

Question	Answer	Mark	Guidance
	TONALITY: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Remains in Gm throughout, providing stability; use of the descending bass notes makes riff memorable and dramatic. Ref. explanation of minor tonality for an optimistic song, e.g. seriousness, determination, obstacles overcome to achieve this mood of optimism.
4	(b) Answers may refer to: NINA SIMONE: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Metre changed to 4-beat from original 3/4. 4-bar phrases of 4/4 time (instead of 8 bars of 3/4 in original). In G minor to exploit singer's low register Relaxed jazz singing style. Swung quavers, syncopated. Melody is phrased musically and words articulated. Simone is flexible with each phrase sung differently. Chorus is challenging for singer with continuous melody and little time to breathe. Verse 2 starts with sustained note by vocalist. Melody is varied from verse 1 with some higher notes. Last lines return to rich lower register. Final chorus is again varied with scat cadenza. Relaxed jazz/swing arrangement for band, prominent piano countermelody and brass syncopated chords. Chorus also uses sustained strings and backing singers. Link has chromatic changes of harmony using a pattern well known in James Bond theme. Other versions may include: CHARLES AZNAVOUR: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Composer/performer of original French chanson version. Baritone, crooning/intimate style. Relaxed performance. Slower, moderate waltz tempo. 	10	9-10 marks: Detailed engagement with the musical interpretation and/or the expressive/emotional context of the performances. Clear understanding of the performance and arrangement aspects of the chosen songs, supported by accurate musical examples. 7-8 marks: Clear engagement with the musical interpretation and/or the expressive/emotional context of the performances. Good understanding of the performance and arrangement aspects of the chosen songs, supported by some relevant examples, mostly applied accurately. 5-6 marks: Engagement with the musical interpretation and/or the expressive/emotional context of the performances. General understanding of the performance and arrangement aspects of the chosen songs but lacking evidence or detailed understanding. 3-4 marks: Some engagement with the musical interpretation and/or the expressive/emotional context of the performances, lacking in examples, or good comments on one song only.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Different lyrics, sung in French (title L'amour c'est comme un jour), also recorded in English • Expressive, love song, sad/regretful/reflective, sustained/legato phrases, building to higher notes, rubato/flexible rhythmic performance. • Orchestra mainly strings plus harp, glockenspiel. Pizzicato bass notes emphasise strong beats. • Countermelody on violins, fuller string lines in chorus. RHIANNON GIDDENS: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Slow waltz tempo. • Clear tone from vocalist with good diction. Musical phrasing, melody begins unaccompanied – no intro. • Ref. interpretation/compare with Simone (e.g. Giddens performance is about missed opportunity/hoping for a better tomorrow, Simone is more determined not to be defeated again) • Plucked bass and brushes on snare drum. Solo strings added with tremolo then violin countermelodies in thirds. Pizzicato violins in verse 2 and cello melody. More intricate strings in chorus. • Change of mood in ending. Strings stop, slower. Short descending phrase on 'concern'. Last line unaccompanied. Then short instrumental finish. Other recordings of French and/or English versions may be discussed.		1–2 marks: Superficial engagement and/or very limited understanding of the performing and arrangement aspects of the chosen songs, with very few or no examples. 0 marks: Answer makes no accurate or relevant comment.

5	Answers may refer to: NEW THINKING IN JAZZ: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bebop, developed in 1940s <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Fast, complex improvisations are the focus of the music (e.g. ref. Charlie Parker, Dizzy Gillespie). Virtuoso, double-/triple-time ○ Rhythmic unpredictability and use of syncopation. Use of small groups (ref. post-war decline of big bands). ○ More complex harmonies, dissonance, less focused on playing the Head regularly ○ Artistic/intellectual approach to jazz, moving away from swing/jazz for dance. • Cool jazz, reaction against bebop, e.g. in the 1950s <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Light tone, limited vibrato, quieter, more relaxed, emphasis on melody/lyricism ○ Interest in new developments in jazz, e.g. improvising based on modes, e.g. New York group of jazz musicians (e.g. George Russell, Gil Evans, Lee Konitz) ○ Move towards pre-composed/arrangements, e.g. Miles Davis Nonet (1949, later released as Birth of the Cool album) ○ Later West Coast style (Los Angeles etc.), more commercial version by mostly white musicians (e.g. Chet Baker, Gerry Mulligan, Dave Brubeck). • Awareness that the two styles are not distinct, limitations of such labels, overlap between styles. SO WHAT: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An example of Modal Jazz, based on dorian mode/scale. Use of two parallel chords throughout representing “So what”. • Conventional chorus structure, 32-bar AABA, but very simple harmonic structure (only two chords, Dm7 and Ebm7) to give more freedom for melodic improvisation. 	20	Apply generic grid in Appendix 1. Most candidates should be able to: Explain in simple terms the contrasting playing styles of Miles Davis and Coltrane or Adderley. Show some familiarity with the differences between Cool Jazz and bebop, perhaps general at times but able to discuss some specific detail. Demonstrate some understanding of the music of So What in terms of the structure of the piece and the effect of the use of modes on the possibilities for improvisation. More informed answers will: Explain in detail the approach of each soloist showing perception in the understanding of their contribution to the music giving precise examples from the music. Able to make an informed judgement on the significance of Davis’s music in a wider context. Demonstrate a sophisticated understanding of how the music was created including detail on the use of harmony, rhythm, timbre and texture. Show close familiarity with the music, specific in detail, using technical language with confidence and precision. Consistent use of examples throughout the answer.

Question	Answer	Mark	Guidance
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Combination/contrast of playing styles by soloists: Cool Jazz from Miles Davis (trumpet)/Bill Evans (piano) and more bebop style of John Coltrane (tenor saxophone)/Cannonball Adderley (alto saxophone). • Example of Miles Davis as the leader of the group. Davis's solos are more lyrical, longer, more thoughtful phrases, relaxed style of playing. Begins with short phrases, separated by silences, narrow range of pitch, developing solo into more extended, wide-ranging phrases. • Piano introduction, influenced by impressionist composers, parallel chords etc. Evans's piano solos explore single melodic lines, melody line harmonised in 2^{nds} in Chorus. • Coltrane and Adderley use faster flourishes, semiquaver (16th note) runs exploring the full range of the instruments and extending melodic ideas with the use of sequences. Often less space between the phrases than Davis. Quite harsh tone with more repetition of short motifs. • Ref. unusual pizzicato/plucked double bass head melody. Credit any other relevant points made in answer to the question.		Able to make informed judgements about the music and its context in relation to the question.

6	Answers may refer to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Composed for the Coronation of King James II in Westminster Abbey in 1685 • String Orchestra and continuo, 8 soloists and Double Choir (SSAATBBB) • The sonorous, stately tempo of the first section of the Symphony for the strings would fill the Abbey, followed by the quicker second section using dotted rhythms • Bright major key (C major) reinforced throughout the work at important points. • Contrapuntal nature of many of the choruses – 2nd section – “My heart is inditing” begins with A2, imitated by T, tonal answer, then S2, B1, A1& B2...), using the V – I in the melody. Voices come together in groups for “I speak” but again imitated by a second group of voices, ending with final perfect cadence with Tonic chord on “King” • Verse sections (sung by Solo voices) begin homophonically with a group of three voices (S1, S2 & T on “she shall be brought”, answered by A1, A2, B1, in Em) • Use of dotted rhythms, with upper voices in 3rds for “joy”, firstly for soloists then later for Chorus. • Last section is rather grand, full homophonic Chorus, firmly establishing tonic key for “Praise the Lord” (with whole beat silences) - exploits resonant acoustic of the vast Abbey, affirming the royalty of the occasion. This is reinforced in the final few bars with the quicker crotchet “Alleluias”. • Use of Tonic triad for melody on “At his right hand shall stand the Queen”. • Dotted rhythm melismas on words such as “glorious”, “joy” - add to the celebratory nature of the piece for this occasion. • Features of Purcell’s writing include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ false relations at cadences ○ short orchestral ritornello passages between choral phrases 	20	Apply generic grid in Appendix 1. Most candidates should be able to: Explain some of the different uses of vocal and instrumental forces in some movements from My Heart is Inditing. APPENDIX 1SECTION C Generic Marking Grid

In this section candidates are required to use analytical and appraising skills to make evaluative and critical judgements about music relating to the Area of Study chosen. They need to apply these skills to specific examples of repertoire and to appropriate contexts of time and culture. Candidates will also be assessed on their ability to construct and develop a sustained and coherent line of reasoning and marks for extended responses are integrated into the marking criteria below.

17 - 20 marks: Thorough and detailed knowledge and understanding of the background, supported by close familiarity, with a wide range of relevant examples of music and a good ability to make evaluative and critical judgements. Extensive understanding of context, with a clear demonstration of the ability to analyse and appraise in relation to the question. There is a well-developed and sustained line of reasoning which is coherent and logically structured. The information presented is entirely relevant and substantiated.

13 - 16 marks: Specific knowledge and understanding of the background, supported by close familiarity with a range of relevant examples of music with an ability to make accurate judgements. Has a good understanding of context, with evidence of the ability to analyse and appraise in relation to the question. There is a well-developed line of reasoning which is clear and logically structured. The information presented is relevant and in the most part substantiated.

9 - 12 marks: Good knowledge and understanding of the general background, supported by some familiarity with a range of relevant examples, not entirely precise in detail. A general understanding of context, but not always able to analyse and appraise in relation to the question. There is a line of reasoning presented with some structure. The information presented is in the most part relevant and supported by some evidence.

5 - 8 marks: Some knowledge of the background to the repertoire, but relatively superficial, partly supported by familiarity with some relevant examples and some understanding of context, but only partly able to analyse and appraise in relation to the question. The information has some relevance and is presented with limited structure. The information is supported by limited evidence.

1 - 4 marks: Some knowledge of the relevant background to the repertoire, partly supported by familiarity with some music, but insecure and not always relevant. A general understanding of context, with weak analysis and appraisal in relation to the question. The information is basic and is communicated in an unstructured way. The information may be weakly supported by limited evidence, and the relationship to the evidence may not be clear.

0 marks: No response worthy of credit.

APPENDIX 2

SECTION A Melody dictation or bass dictation questions

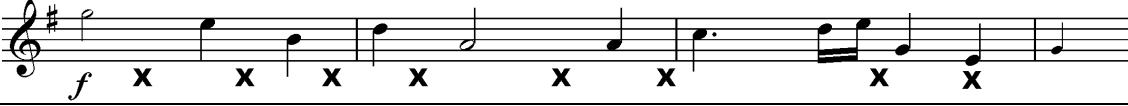

Answers are marked by 'relative pitch', i.e. by interval between the previous and next note. Mark the errors with a cross X. The mark scheme will tell you how many errors are allowed.

REFERENCE EXAMPLE: (from H143/03 June 2017, Haydn: Symphony No. 44 in E minor, first movement)

- Mark Scheme:
 - 4 marks – completely correct
 - 3 marks – 1 or 2 errors of relative pitch
 - 2 marks – 3 or 4 errors of relative pitch
 - 1 marks – some accuracy in pitch or the general shape is correct
 - 0 marks – very little accuracy
- Mark diatonic passages by step – 3rd, 4th etc. Ignore changes from tone to semitone, major 3rd to minor 3rd etc.
- An incorrect pitch between two correct pitches is 1 error only.
- Treat accidentals as 1 error. The mark scheme will usually give more detail about chromatic notes.

EXAMPLES:

	4 Completely correct.
	3 2 errors: (i) E to B is incorrect; the rest of the line is correct in relative pitch/intervals – accept tone D-C but (ii) the final G to the cue note G is incorrect ('dovetailing').

47 	3	1 error. Accept enharmonic equivalents (D# and Eb). (i) the incorrect E is one error between two correct pitches.
47 	1	8 errors. The general shape is correct, so 1 mark for shape.
47 	0	The general shape is insecure. A few correct pitches but not accurate enough to gain a mark.
