Action at Christmas

The charity 'Action at Christmas' was founded in 1990 by a married couple in a small town in the west of England. Now, local organisations operate all over the country.

Its aim is to help elderly people, who would otherwise be alone, to enjoy a great Christmas Day with a family.

The family is asked to provide a traditional meal at lunchtime, and to purchase a small gift suitable for their guest. Action at Christmas is happy to help with suggestions if you are stuck!

Hélène

This 81 year old Belgian lady came to England 60 years ago
to get married.
Mobility problems
make it difficult for her to go out.

After Christmas, many families continue the friendship. It is a fantastic cure for loneliness for the older person who, in turn, can often give help or do occasional babysitting.

Register on the website to give somebody an unforgettable Christmas.
