INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES

- Write your name, centre number and candidate number in the boxes above. Please write clearly and in capital letters.
- Use black ink. HB pencil may be used for graphs and diagrams only.
- Answer all the questions.
- Read each question carefully. Make sure you know what you have to do before starting your answer.
- You are reminded of the importance of including relevant knowledge from all areas of your course, where appropriate, including the English Legal System.
- Write your answer to each question in the space provided. Additional paper may be used if necessary but you must clearly show your candidate number, centre number and question number(s).
- Do not write in the bar codes.

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

- The number of marks is given in brackets [] at the end of each question or part question.
- The total number of marks for this paper is 80.
- Candidates are reminded of the need to write legibly and in continuous prose, where appropriate. In answering questions 1 and 2 you will be assessed on the quality of your written communication (QWC) including your use of appropriate legal terminology. These questions are marked with an asterisk (*).
- Candidates are reminded that they are able to use the information given in the sources to support their own knowledge and understanding, evaluation, analysis, and application of the law. Where candidates wish to extract from the source in this way they should use quotation marks or accurately cite lines of the source. Candidates who merely 'lift' information from the source materials without using it to support further knowledge, evaluation, analysis or application, will receive little or no credit. You are expected to demonstrate understanding of the area(s) of law and the development of law and to use legal methods and reasoning to analyse legal material, to select appropriate legal rules and apply these in order to draw conclusions.
- This document consists of 24 pages. Any blank pages are indicated.

In answering questions use the source materials and your knowledge of the subject.

1* Discuss the extent to which the decision of the House of Lords in Mason v Provident Clothing & Supply Co Ltd [Source 4 page 5 Special Study Materials] represents a development of the law regarding restraint of trade. [16]

Start writing your answer to question 1 below. Start writing your answer to question 2 on page 7.
Start writing your answer to question 3 on page 17.

- 2 In Source 3 [page 4 lines 13–14 Special Study Materials] Smith argues: “Essentially, the question is the extent to which the law should interfere with the freedom of the contracting parties to do business in such a way as to limit or restrict competition”.

Discuss the extent to which the courts’ development of the law on restraint of trade has interfered too much with parties’ freedom of contract in the light of the above statement. [34]
