- 4* Reena has been working at Milkeze for the past 2 years. Milkeze Ltd pay her tax and National Insurance and Reena wears a uniform provided for her. Reena fails to wear the hair net provided for her by Milkeze and as a result her hairclip falls into a batch of milkshakes she is making.

Reena offers to give Iain a lift home during the working day using one of the Milkeze delivery vans even though it is against company rules to give lifts to non-employees. Whilst driving, Reena is distracted and crashes the van causing cuts and bruises to Iain.

Charlotte, who is passing by, takes the opportunity to steal Milkeze milkshakes from the back of the van. Reena grabs Charlotte, but Charlotte gets away.

Later that evening, after work, Reena sees Charlotte drinking a Milkeze milkshake. Unknowingly, Charlotte drinks the milkshake that contains the hairclip and the hairclip causes her injury.

Charlotte and Reena get into an argument and Reena punches Charlotte in the face breaking her nose.

Advise whether Iain and Charlotte will be able to bring any successful claims against Milkeze Ltd. [50]

- 5* Callum and Toby visit an air show. During one of the air displays Callum witnesses, from behind the safety barrier, a plane losing control and crashing. This causes Callum to suffer from anxiety.

The crashed plane catches fire. An announcement is made that the fire has spread to some nearby houses. Toby knows that his friend, Matthew, is watching the display from one of these houses.

Matthew manages to escape from his burning house and finds Toby. Matthew is covered in blood and soot. The shock of seeing his friend like this causes Toby to be seriously upset and later he becomes depressed.

Matthew is shocked by the events and the loss of his house. He suffers post-traumatic stress disorder and insomnia.

Advise whether Callum, Toby and Matthew will be able to bring successful claims for nervous shock (psychiatric damage) against the air show organisers. [50]

- 6* Lara enters Peter's field and decides to have a barbecue there in the middle of the day. Smuts from the barbecue travel onto Carole's land next door and damage the clothes on her washing line. Whilst eating, Lara plays loud music which disturbs Carole. This causes Carole particular distress as she suffers from headaches that are made worse by loud noise. After her barbecue Lara forgets to take her picnic blanket with her and leaves it in Peter's field.

Lara flies a kite whilst walking home. The kite flies over Carole's property.

Peter is so upset by people using his field to have barbecues that he puts up a large 'Private Property' sign. Peter has dug the sign into the ground at such an angle that it has entered Carole's land under the surface of the ground.

Advise whether Peter and Carole will be able to bring successful claims under the torts of trespass to land and private nuisance. [50]

Sam does invest a large amount of money but the IT company fails to make any profit and Sam loses all of his investment.
