English Literature

Unit J352/01: Exploring modern and literary heritage texts

General Certificate of Secondary Education

Mark Scheme for June 2017

OCR (Oxford Cambridge and RSA) is a leading UK awarding body, providing a wide range of qualifications to meet the needs of candidates of all ages and abilities. OCR qualifications include AS/A Levels, Diplomas, GCSEs, Cambridge Nationals, Cambridge Technicals, Functional Skills, Key Skills, Entry Level qualifications, NVQs and vocational qualifications in areas such as IT, business, languages, teaching/training, administration and secretarial skills.

It is also responsible for developing new specifications to meet national requirements and the needs of students and teachers. OCR is a not-for-profit organisation; any surplus made is invested back into the establishment to help towards the development of qualifications and support, which keep pace with the changing needs of today's society.

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and students, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which marks were awarded by examiners. It does not indicate the details of the discussions which took place at an examiners' meeting before marking commenced.

All examiners are instructed that alternative correct answers and unexpected approaches in candidates' scripts must be given marks that fairly reflect the relevant knowledge and skills demonstrated.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the published question papers and the report on the examination.

OCR will not enter into any discussion or correspondence in connection with this mark scheme.

Subject-specific Marking Instructions

INTRODUCTION

Your first task as an Examiner is to become thoroughly familiar with the material on which the examination depends. This material includes:

- the specification, especially the assessment objectives
- the question paper and its rubrics
- the texts which candidates have studied
- the mark scheme.

You should ensure that you have copies of these materials.

You should ensure also that you are familiar with the administrative procedures related to the marking process. These are set out in the OCR booklet Instructions for Examiners. If you are examining for the first time, please read carefully Appendix 5 Introduction to Script Marking: Notes for New Examiners.

Please ask for help or guidance whenever you need it. Your first point of contact is your Team Leader.

ASSESSMENT OBJECTIVES

Candidates are expected to demonstrate their ability to:

AO1	Read, understand and respond to texts. Students should be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• maintain a critical style and develop an informed personal response</li> <li>• use textual references, including quotations, to support and illustrate interpretations.</li> </ul>
AO2	Analyse the language, form and structure used by a writer to create meanings and effects, using relevant subject terminology where appropriate.
AO3	Show understanding of the relationships between texts and the contexts in which they were written.
AO4	Use a range of vocabulary and sentence structures for clarity, purpose and effect, with accurate spelling and punctuation.

WEIGHTING OF ASSESSMENT OBJECTIVES

The relationship between the units and the assessment objectives of the scheme of assessment is shown in the following grid:

Component	% of GCSE				Total
	AO1	AO2	AO3	AO4
Exploring modern and literary heritage texts (J352/01)	20	17.5	10	2.5	50
Exploring poetry and Shakespeare (J352/02)	20	22.5	5	2.5	50
Total	40	40	15	5	100

USING THE MARK SCHEME

Please study this Mark Scheme carefully. The Mark Scheme is an integral part of the process that begins with the setting of the question paper and ends with the awarding of grades. Question papers and Mark Schemes are developed in association with each other so that issues of differentiation and positive achievement can be addressed from the very start.

This Mark Scheme is a working document; it is not exhaustive; it does not provide 'correct' answers. The Mark Scheme can only provide 'best guesses' about how the question will work out, and it is subject to revision after we have looked at a wide range of scripts.

The Examiners' Standardisation Meeting will ensure that the Mark Scheme covers the range of candidates' responses to the questions, and that all Examiners understand and apply the Mark Scheme in the same way. The Mark Scheme will be discussed and amended at the meeting, and administrative procedures will be confirmed. Co-ordination scripts will be issued at the meeting to exemplify aspects of candidates' responses and achievements; the co-ordination scripts then become part of this Mark Scheme.

Before the Standardisation Meeting, you should read and mark in pencil a number of scripts, in order to gain an impression of the range of responses and achievement that may be expected.

Please read carefully all the scripts in your allocation and make every effort to look positively for achievement throughout the ability range. Always be prepared to use the full range of marks.

INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR EXAMINERS

- 1 The co-ordination scripts provide you with examples of the standard of each band. The marks awarded for these scripts will have been agreed by the Team Leaders and will be discussed fully at the Examiners' Co-ordination Meeting.
- 2 The specific task-related indicative content for each question will help you to understand how the band descriptors may be applied. However, this indicative content does not constitute the mark scheme: it is material that candidates might use, grouped according to each assessment objective tested by the question. For each specific task, the intended balance between different assessment objectives is highlighted in the Mark Scheme: dominant assessment objectives are flagged, or where assessment objectives are equally weighted, this is flagged, too. It is hoped that candidates will respond to questions in a variety of ways and will give original and at times unexpected interpretations of texts. Rigid demands for 'what must be a good answer' would lead to a distorted assessment.
- 3 Candidates' answers must be relevant to the question. Beware of prepared answers that do not show the candidate's thought and which have not been adapted to the thrust of the question. Beware also of answers where candidates attempt to reproduce interpretations and concepts that they have been taught but have only partially understood.
- 4 Candidates' answers should demonstrate knowledge of their chosen texts. This knowledge will be shown in part through the range and relevance of their references to the text (bearing in mind that this is a closed text examination). Re-telling sections of the text without commentary is of little or no value.

INSTRUCTIONS TO EXAMINERS:*A INDIVIDUAL ANSWERS

- 1 The INDICATIVE CONTENT indicates the sort of material candidates might use in their answers, but be prepared to recognise and credit unexpected and alternative approaches where they are relevant.
- 2 Using 'best-fit', decide first which set of LEVEL OF RESPONSE BAND DESCRIPTORS for the relevant assessment objectives assessed in the task best describes the overall quality of the answer. In Unit J352/01, the AOs have different intended weightings in the different sections:

Component Exploring Modern and Literary Heritage Texts (J352/01)	% of GCSE				Total
	AO1	AO2	AO3	AO4
Section A: Modern prose or drama Part a)	5	2.5	5		12.5
Section A: Modern prose or drama Part b)	6.25	6.25			12.5
Section B: 19 th century prose	8.75	8.75	5	2.5	25
Total	20	17.5	10	2.5	50

Keep in mind the intended weightings of assessment objectives targeted by the question when initially identifying the correct Level of Response band. For each specific task, the intended balance between different assessment objectives is highlighted in the Mark Scheme: dominant assessment objectives are flagged, or where assessment objectives are equally weighted, this is flagged, too. Using 'best-fit', adjust the mark within the band according to the dominant (if applicable) assessment objectives following the guidelines below:

- Highest mark: If clear evidence of all the qualities in the band descriptors is shown, the HIGHEST Mark should be awarded.
- Lowest mark: If the answer shows the candidate to be borderline (i.e. they have achieved all the qualities of the bands below and show limited evidence of meeting the criteria of the band in question) the LOWEST mark should be awarded.
- Middle mark: This mark should be used for candidates who are secure in the band. They are not 'borderline' but they have only achieved some of the qualities in the band descriptors.

- Further refinement can be made by using the intervening marks, if appropriate.

3 Be prepared to use the full range of marks. Do not reserve high band marks 'in case' something turns up of a quality you have not yet seen. If an answer gives clear evidence of the qualities described in the band descriptors, reward appropriately.

B TOTAL MARKS

- 1 Transfer the mark awarded to the front of the script.
- 2 The maximum mark for the paper is 80.

C RATIONALE FOR ASSESSING AO3

Section A: Modern prose or drama

In this Section, for the Part a questions, candidates will have knowledge of contextual factors for their studied texts but will have no prior knowledge of the context of the unseen texts. The introduction to each extract will give clear contextual information, to allow candidates to develop inferences and ideas about relevant contexts.

Candidates are required to focus their analysis on comparison of the extracts (studied text and unseen) in the question paper, and do not need to refer more widely to the whole studied text.

They should therefore make reference to contextual factors that are relevant to their knowledge, understanding and interpretation of the extracts only. The relevant contextual factors will be concerned with social and cultural situations or experiences, which can be inferred from details in the extracts. In the questions, the supporting bullet points (1 and 2) target AO3 and AO1, (bullet point 3 targets AO2), clearly prompting candidates to consider situations and/ or experience that can be inferred from reading of the extracts. The mark scheme indicative content for AO3 exemplifies the relevant contextual factors, for example, social class, gender, age and cultural and family relationships.

Section B: 19th century prose

In this Section, candidates will have knowledge of contextual factors for their studied texts and will use this to develop their response to the question. Candidates should only refer to contexts that are relevant to the specific question asked. The questions are worded to prompt candidates to consider relevant social, historical or cultural contexts, or relevant generic literary contexts, such as the conventions of science fiction writing or the Gothic.

Four days later, this provides an excuse to execute the mutinous animals (Ch7 p57-62); the abolition of 'Beasts of England' (Ch7 p65); when the pigs appear on their hind legs and the seven commandments are amalgamated into one, asserting that 'SOME ANIMALS ARE MORE EQUAL THAN OTHERS'. This makes the commandment all the more shocking when it is revealed. Jackie maintains control, echoing her mother's words ('You don't know what might happen... I might fall in love'). The extract closes with Jackie's character still in control, using the same technique, repeating her mother's words ('Margaret: Since when? Jackie: Since before...'). The power dynamic in Abigail and her mother's relationship is implied rather than stated, by repetition of unassertive language by Susan - 'I don't think... I don't think' - and modifiers like 'just' and 'really knows'; however, candidates may argue that the language is evasive rather than unassertive, that Susan is protecting her daughter from Beverly's prying, and this is evidence of a positive relationship between mother and daughter, though she throws Beverly a crumb with 'I don't think she really knows herself'.</li> </ul>

So do the stage directions: (dances bored... speak with joy) which also convey the narrator's detached amusement at how the boys and girls relate to each other</li> <li>• Structure: Leah's listing of the punishments Phil should inflict upon her for talking too much comes at the end of the extract. It is hyperbolic, creates humour and shows she is reaching the end of her tether. Another list of hyperbolic synonyms to describe her 'crime' of talking too much immediately follows, showing that she is reaching boiling point; the extract concludes with her going on the attack 'you're not perfect actually, Phil'; the character in the Dowie extract uses physical humour to show her amusement throughout 'Waddles backwards and forwards... Stiffly tries to get back to boys' side'.</li> </ul>

Marking grid for AO4

High performance 4 marks
In the context of the Level of Demand of the question, learners spell and punctuate with consistent accuracy, and consistently use vocabulary and sentence structures to achieve effective control of meaning.
Intermediate performance 2–3 marks
In the context of the Level of Demand of the question, learners spell and punctuate with considerable accuracy, and use a considerable range of vocabulary and sentence structures to achieve general control of meaning.
Threshold performance 1 mark
In the context of the Level of Demand of the question, learners spell and punctuate with reasonable accuracy, and use a reasonable range of vocabulary and sentence structures; any errors do not hinder meaning in the response.
