Mark Scheme for January 2013

OCR (Oxford Cambridge and RSA) is a leading UK awarding body, providing a wide range of qualifications to meet the needs of candidates of all ages and abilities. OCR qualifications include AS/A Levels, Diplomas, GCSEs, Cambridge Nationals, Cambridge Technicals, Functional Skills, Key Skills, Entry Level qualifications, NVQs and vocational qualifications in areas such as IT, business, languages, teaching/training, administration and secretarial skills.

It is also responsible for developing new specifications to meet national requirements and the needs of students and teachers. OCR is a not-for-profit organisation; any surplus made is invested back into the establishment to help towards the development of qualifications and support, which keep pace with the changing needs of today's society.

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and students, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which marks were awarded by examiners. It does not indicate the details of the discussions which took place at an examiners' meeting before marking commenced.

All examiners are instructed that alternative correct answers and unexpected approaches in candidates' scripts must be given marks that fairly reflect the relevant knowledge and skills demonstrated.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the published question papers and the report on the examination.

OCR will not enter into any discussion or correspondence in connection with this mark scheme.

Subject-specific Marking Instructions

- a. This marking scheme has been designed to assess candidates' understanding of the key concepts of the course, and their ability to use source material to illustrate their understanding. These concepts, and the ability to interpret and evaluate source material, are central to GCSE History, and it is, therefore, upon these that the marking scheme focuses. The candidates' factual knowledge is important, but it is only rewarded if it is used to back up the demonstration of understanding of these concepts.
- b. Targets, which are directly related to the Assessment Objectives for the course, are given for all questions. The marking scheme is constructed to assess the level of understanding or skill needed to approach these targets.
- c. This type of marking scheme, in rewarding the level of understanding/skill reached by the candidate, demands that if a candidate reaches a particular level, s/he MUST be rewarded within the mark band for that level, whether or not s/he included lower level responses within that answer. A response which corresponds with a level description but which is a weak example of the level MUST NOT be placed in a lower level than the one to which the answer corresponds. Reward candidates for what they understand, know, and can do.
- d. Marks are not cumulative. Please do not try to count up marks for 'points' made.
- e. Exhaustive suggestions for factual support are not given. There will usually be a choice of factual support which a candidate may choose to deploy and so examiners should use their knowledge and discretion as to whether this is valid. Examiners who are in any doubt should contact their Team Leader immediately.
- f. All marking should be in red.
- g. Half marks should not be used.
- h. Do not transfer marks from one part of a question to another.
- i. Examples of responses which are given within levels are intended to act as examples only. They are not prescriptive or fully developed at the higher levels, and there may be other answers which correspond to each level. The important aspect of each level is the level descriptor. Do not try to match the words of the example with the words of the candidate. Instead, compare the type of answer which a candidate makes with the level descriptor.
- j. If you come across an answer which is valid but does not appear to fit any of the level descriptions, you should try and find the level which demonstrates an equivalent level of understanding. If in any doubt, contact your Team Leader.

k. Where they are merited do not worry about awarding top marks in levels or for complete questions. You should also, where appropriate, not hesitate to award bottom marks or even no marks at all. Avoidance of awarding top marks in particular will lead to a bunching or an unnatural depression of marks.

l. Please note on the script the level as well as the mark awarded for each part of each question. This MUST be shown clearly in the margin of the script towards the end of an answer, eg L3/8.

m. It is important once you have mastered the marking scheme that you maintain the same standard of marking throughout all batches of your scripts.

n. The mark scheme allows for the assessment of written communication in those parts of a question where written communication is applicable. Written communication will be assessed in the (c) part of questions 2, 3, 5 and 6.

Written communication will be assessed as follows.

Candidates are expected to:

- Present relevant information in a form that suits its purpose;
- Ensure that text is legible and that spelling, punctuation and grammar are accurate, so that meaning is clear.

The quality of written communication, covering clarity of expression, structure of arguments, presentation of ideas, grammar, punctuation and spelling is one of the criteria used to determine the placing of a response within a level in mark schemes.

Candidates' answers should first be placed in the appropriate level in the mark scheme. Where there is a range of marks in the level, the quality of the candidates' written communication should be one of a number of factors used in determining which mark to award a response. In general, an answer displaying good quality written communication skills should score more marks than an answer displaying poor communication skills.

o. The standardisation meeting will include discussion of the range of acceptable responses. Where you are uncertain of how the mark scheme should be applied to a particular response a telephone call to your team leader should resolve the situation.

SECTION A: THE INTER-WAR YEARS, 1919–1939

Question		Answer	Marks	Guidance
1	(a)	Study Sources A and B. Does Source A make Source B surprising? Use the source and your knowledge to explain your answer. Target: AO1, 3
		Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question	0
		Level 1 Unsupported assertions/paraphrases/copies/surface features using one/both sources eg 'I am surprised the French are thought of as stupid.' 'I am not surprised they are saying the Treaty of Versailles is wicked.' 'I am surprised by Germany's actions as they pose a threat in a time of peace.'	1–2
		Level 2 Comments on context of source(s) but fails to develop surprised/not surprised eg 'In 1936, Hitler re-militarised the Rhineland which was against the Treaty of Versailles. He did this although he considered his army was not strong enough. Britain thought he was marching 'into his own backyard'.'	3

		Level 3 Surprised/not surprised – based on undeveloped comment on provenance/purpose/tone eg 'No, Source A does not make Source B surprising. Source A is a British politician commenting critically on France's attitude to German re-armament the impact of which is shown in Source B where the author is drawing attention to France missing opportunities to prevent re-armament.'	4
		Level 4 Surprised/not surprised using sources OR eg 'Source A is suggesting that Britain should not support France's relations with Germany as they are allowing Germany to secretly re-arm because the Treaty of Versailles was wicked towards Germany. It is not surprising therefore that French support has resulted in their non-action when the Germany troops took the opportunity to march into the Rhineland two years later.'	5

Question	Answer	Marks	Guidance
	Level 5 Surprised OR not surprised – checks against contextual knowledge OR Surprised/not surprised – provenance/purpose/tone eg 'I am surprised with Source B. Although secret re-arming was taking place without French opposition, Hitler was still taking a huge gamble. If he had been forced to withdraw he would have faced humiliation and so it is surprising he took the risk to march his troops into the Rhineland.' OR 'I am not surprised Germany got away with it. Source A suggests Britain is becoming wary of the French. The French were divided over what to do. They were about to hold an election and none of the French leaders was prepared to take responsibility for plunging France into war. France did not have Britain's support.' OR 'Both the sources are critical of France. The purpose of Source A is to increase awareness of the danger that Germany is increasingly posing. At that time many people blamed France for the failure to gain disarmament because of their attitude. Source B relates to a militaristic attitude of Germany, warning that France's inaction has missed an opportunity to stem the increasing militarism of Germany which is becoming more threatening. Source B is therefore not surprising.'	6
	Level 6 Two aspects of Level 5	7

Question		Answer	Marks	Guidance
1	(b)	Study Source C. Why did the Soviet Union publish this cartoon in 1938? Use the source and your knowledge to explain your answer. Target: AO1, 2, 3
		Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question	0
		Level 1 Surface use of source for information/general assertions eg 'The source shows a man with a gun, threatening another person.'	1
		Level 2 Focus on context of source with no valid main message or purpose eg 'At the Munich Conference of September 1938 Hitler was given the Sudetenland. The Czechs were not consulted. Chamberlain thought it was 'peace in our time'.'	2–3
		Level 3 Asserts main message of the poster but with no development eg 'The message is that Britain is not going to oppose Hitler.' 'Britain has left Czechoslovakia at the mercy of Germany.' 'Czechoslovakia is being threatened.' 'Britain will not help you.'	4

Question		Answer	Marks	Guidance
		Level 4 Explains message of source eg 'The message is that Britain is not going to oppose Hitler. Stalin was convinced of this when at Munich Britain and France appeased Hitler giving Czechoslovakia little choice regarding the Sudetenland.' 'Britain has left Czechoslovakia at the mercy of Germany. The cartoon shows this as the Czech citizen does not have a choice. He must either allow Germany to invade or just give in.'	5
		Level 5 Asserts purpose of the poster but with no development eg 'The reason for publishing this cartoon was to alert Soviet citizens to the fact that Britain is giving-in to/not opposing Hitler and by their actions over Czechoslovakia pushing him more towards the east.'	6
		Level 6 Valid explanation of purpose eg 'The reason for publishing this cartoon was to alert Soviet citizens to the fact that Britain is giving-in to/not opposing Hitler and by their actions over Czechoslovakia pushing him more towards the east. Stalin wanted an alliance with Britain but realised this was out of the question as they constantly appeased Hitler.'	7
		Level 7 Level 6 + context of 1938 'In 1938 the Munich Conference took place at which Czechoslovakia had no choice but to accept the terms.'	8

Question		Answer	Marks	Guidance
1	(c)	Study Source D. What is the cartoonist's message? Use details of the cartoon and your knowledge to explain your answer. Target: AO 1, 2, 3
		Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question	0
		Level 1 Uses surface features of cartoon only eg 'Hitler and Stalin are shown as having got married.'	1–2
		Level 2 Secondary message eg 'Germany and Russia are partners/have joined forces/are in a relationship.' 'Hitler has the greater power.'	3
		Level 3 Secondary message supported by details of the cartoon/contextual knowledge eg 'Germany and Russia are partners/working together. This view is supported by the cartoon as they are shown as being married.'	4

Question		Answer	Marks	Guidance
		Level 4 Main message of cartoon identified The artist is cynical/sceptical/surprised about a relationship of convenience having seen through the hypocrisy of the alliance. eg 'The message is that the partnership between Hitler and Stalin is one of convenience/is temporary/unstable/uncertain/not what it seems.' 'The partnership will be short-lived.' 'How soon before the promises made will be broken?' 'Stalin is being used.'	5
		Level 5 Main message supported by details of the cartoon OR by contextual knowledge eg 'The message is that the partnership between Hitler and Stalin is one of convenience. The cartoonist is questioning how long the 'honeymoon' will last.' OR Context must relate to the Nazi-Soviet Pact. eg 'The message is that the partnership between Hitler and Stalin is one of convenience. This is shown by the fact that the two were enemies and yet signing a non-aggression pact. Hitler had always stated that one of his aims was to get rid of communism.'	6
		Level 6 Main message supported by details of the cartoon AND by contextual knowledge Both sides of Level 5.	7

Question		Answer	Marks	Guidance
1	(d)	Explain why Britain followed a policy of appeasement towards Germany in the 1930s. Target: AO1, 2
		Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question	0
		Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge eg 'It was the best policy at the time.'	1–2
		Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons (One mark for each point) eg 'Britain followed a policy of appeasement to keep the peace.' 'There was increasing sympathy for Germany having to suffer the harsh Treaty.' 'Britain wanted to find a peaceful solution to Germany's problems.' 'Britain feared the threat of Communism.' 'It enabled a re-armament programme to be undertaken.' 'People still remembered the First World War.' 'Chamberlain believed Hitler could be trusted.'	3–4

Question		Answer	Marks	Guidance
		Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Five marks for a basic explanation; six marks for a developed explanation.) eg 'Britain was too weak militarily to stop Hitler. In 1938 the heads of the armed forces told Chamberlain that they were not ready to fight. Appeasement would give Britain a chance to re-arm.'	5–6
		Level 4 Explains more than one reason (Seven marks for two basic explanations; eight marks for three basic explanations or development of two explanations.)	7–8

'As a last resort, military action could be used against an aggressive nation.'	4

Question		Answer	Marks	Guidance
3	(b)	Explain why some major powers did not join the League of Nations. Target: AO1, 2
		Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question	0
		Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge eg 'Some were not allowed to join.'	1
		Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes reasons for not joining One mark for each identification/description. eg 'In the USA the Senate voted against joining.' 'The USA did not want to get involved in European affairs.' 'Germany was not allowed to join.' 'USSR was not invited to join.'	2–3

		Level 4 Explains TWO reasons	6

Question		Answer	Marks	Guidance
3	(c)	'The Manchurian crisis was the main reason the League of Nations failed.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. Target: AO1, 2 (Written communication is assessed in this question.)
		Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question	0

This attitude allowed Japan to take advantage of its Eurocentric attitude and thus highlight the League's weakness.' OR 'Britain and France acted in their own interests. They did not want to upset Mussolini as this might drive him to ally with Hitler and Germany. So the economic sanctions the League imposed did not include oil, coal and iron. This showed it was weak.'	4–6

Question		Answer	Marks	Guidance
		Level 5 Explains with evaluation of 'how far' Must have both sides of argument and evaluation. Must have Level 4 plus – eg 'The Manchuria Crisis was only partly to blame. As argued it showed the League to be weak and unwilling to deal with a major power because of the attitude of its leading nations. But the real reason for failure was Abyssinia where the League sham was exposed by Hoare-Laval and the failure of Britain and France to be strong against Italy for fear of upsetting Mussolini and Hitler. This exposure effectively ended the League.'	10

SECTION B: THE COLD WAR, 1945–1975

Question		Answer	Marks	Guidance
1	(a)	Study Source A. Why was this cartoon published in the Soviet Union in 1960? Use the source and your knowledge to explain your answer. Target: AO1, 2, 3

Question		Answer	Marks	Guidance
		Level 6 Valid explanation of purpose eg 'The purpose of the cartoon is to criticise US ineffectual attempt at trying to dictate to Cuba/Castro. The USA was concerned about Castro increasing his ties to the Soviet Union by agreeing a trade agreement to receive economic aid and arms. America tried to stop this move by Castro, fearing Castro's ideas might spread to other countries in the region. The Soviet Union is saying that they do not have the power to do this.'	7
		Level 7 Level 6 + context of 1960 'Links with the agreement of 1960 where Castro did what he wanted and linked with the Soviet Union for economic aid and some arms.'	8

		Level 4 Main message of cartoon identified The cartoonist is taking an anti-American view that Kennedy is being hypocritical. The message should relate to the nature of the complaint given the imbalance between the threat to each country. eg 'The message of the cartoon is that Kennedy's complaint is unjustified.' 'Khrushchev has greater justification, than Kennedy, for complaint.'	5
		Level 5 Main message supported by details of the cartoon OR by contextual knowledge eg 'The message of the cartoon is that Kennedy's complaint is unjustified. The US rockets are shown in the cartoon as being more powerful and greater in number and therefore posing a greater threat.' OR Context must relate to the existence of long-range US missiles in Turkey and Europe and the threat they posed to the USSR as compared with USSR missiles on Cuba / the Cuban Missile Crisis. eg 'The message of the cartoon is that Kennedy's complaint is unjustified. The USA had greater numbers of long-range missiles based in Western Europe and Turkey and these posed a greater threat to the Soviet Union than the USSR's missiles on Cuba.'	6

'At the time one of the reasons for putting missiles on Cuba was to protect Cuba following the Bay of Pigs.'	3

Question		Answer	Marks	Guidance
		Level 3 Surprised/not surprised using sources eg 'In Source C Kennedy is calling upon Khrushchev to remove the threat to world peace so I am not surprised that in Source D Khrushchev is denying that was his intention as he would not want to be seen to be the person who almost causing a nuclear war.' OR 'I am surprised with D. 		Level 4 Surprised OR Not surprised – checks against contextual knowledge OR Surprised/not surprised – provenance/purpose/tone eg 'I am surprised with Source D. Why would Kennedy go on television and cause panic if the Soviet Union's intention was to prevent the US from invading Cuba. Khrushchev might well have been protecting Cuba. But with nuclear missiles? He must have had the motive during the Cold War of challenging US superiority.' OR 'I am not surprised with Source D. The US had lost control of a valuable asset and had already attempted one invasion so it is only right that Castro should ask for protection from Khrushchev.' OR eg 'I am not surprised that in his memoirs Khrushchev is trying to improve his image. At the time he was heavily criticised for backing down and was removed from power.'	5–6

In Greece, where aid was provided under this policy of containment, the influence of the Soviet Union was stopped.' OR 'Having freed much of Eastern Europe from the Nazis, the Red Army remained in occupation and the Soviet Union established Communist governments through 'fixed' elections. This happened in Czechoslovakia, Poland, Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria.' (Only one eg required)	4–6

Question		Answer	Marks	Guidance
		Level 5 Explains with evaluation of 'how far' Must have both sides of argument and evaluation. As Level 4 plus – eg 'The evidence would suggest that media coverage was more significant as this the war was the first televised one. This brought home to the people the stark realities of war and the conditions suffered by the military many of whom were very young. This approach encouraged greater questioning as to whether the war was winnable (and at what cost)? Protests had lesser impact because of the nature of 'draft dodging'.'	10

SECTION C: A NEW WORLD? 1948–2005

Question		Answer	Marks	Guidance
1	(a)	Study Sources A and B. Does Source A make Source B surprising? Use the sources and your knowledge to explain your answer. Target: AO1, 3
		Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question	0
		Level 1 Unsupported assertions/paraphrases/copies/surface features of either/both sources eg 'I am not surprised that terrorism is criticised.' 'I am not surprised that violence is being condemned.' 'I am not surprised as one source is written by a Palestinian and the other by an Israeli.' 'I am surprised that Timerman was critical of Israeli tactics.' 'I am surprised a PLO commander is saying that the armed struggle is over.'	1–2
		Level 2 Comments on context of either source but fails to explain surprised/not surprised eg 'Until the 1970s, Lebanon was a stable country, with Beirut one of the richest cities in the Middle East. This was changed when the PLO armed forces set up bases there after being expelled from Jordan. From here they attacked northern Israel. The Israelis hit back often killing the Lebanese.'	3

Question		Answer	Marks	Guidance
		Level 3 Surprised/not surprised – based on undeveloped comment on provenance eg 'I am not surprised because Source B was written sometime after Source A.' 'I am not surprised as one source is written by a Palestinian and the other by an Israeli. They two groups were in dispute with each other.'	4
		Level 4 Surprised/not surprised using sources eg 'Yes I am surprised. Source A says that the PLO are now using violence implying all of them and yet Source B is saying that Palestinian youths are serving as volunteers in hospitals.'	5
		Level 5 Surprised OR Not surprised – checks against contextual knowledge OR e.g. 'I am not surprised by Source B. The PLO had set up in Lebanon and from there had been attacking Israel. From here they continued their violent, terrorist tactics. As Source B says this information about the PLO was used by the Israeli government as propaganda. The Israelis had fought back with many Palestinians being injured and killed so it is not surprising that young Palestinians would be looking after their own.' OR 'I am surprised that the PLO commander is suggesting that the armed struggle should be given up. It does not match Source A. The PLO had not gained what they wanted too and had moved out of Jordan having been expelled for terrorist activities. These activities continued until 1982 when the PLO left Beirut following severe losses and thus perhaps thought it was time to change.'	6
		Level 6 Both sides of Level 5.	7

Question		Answer	Marks	Guidance
1	(b)	Study Source C. Why was this cartoon published in 1973? Use the source and your knowledge to explain your answer. Target: AO1, 2, 3
		Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question	0
		Level 1 Surface use of source for information/general assertions eg 'it was published to show a man heading towards Whitehall.'	1
		Level 2 Focus on context of source with no valid message or purpose eg 'Violence was increasing in Northern Ireland and the British government wanted a political solution and so introduced Direct Rule. This meant the province was run by a British government minister. This was to be temporary. In 1973 the British government introduced the initiative of 'Power-Sharing' to try to undermine the IRA.'	2–3
		Level 3 Asserts message of the poster but with no development The cartoonist is critical of the idea – not based on any strength.' eg 'The message of the cartoon is that the 'Power-Sharing initiative is weak.'	4

		Level 4 Explains message of source eg 'The message of the cartoon is that the 'Power-Sharing initiative is weak. The cartoonist shows this by the use of unstable playing cards being threatened by the IRA and UVF. William Whitelaw is shown trying to creep away.'	5
		Level 5 Asserts purpose of the poster but with no development The purpose should relate to the idea that the government need to be aware their idea will not work. eg 'The purpose of the cartoon is to inform the British government that the initiative will not work as it will be destroyed by the IRA and UVF.'	6
		Level 6 Valid explanation of purpose eg 'The purpose of the cartoon is to inform the British government that the initiative will not work as it will be destroyed by the IRA and UVF. The remained tensions between the different groups such as the SDLP, the Nationalists and the Unionists and so the idea was totally insecure.'	7
		Level 7 Level 6 + context of 1973 'This was the first of a number of political initiatives and was proposed by Northern Ireland Secretary William Whitelaw in 1973 and resulted in the Sunningdale Agreement of December 1973.'	8

		Level 1 Uses surface features of cartoon only eg 'The cartoon shows three leaders of terrorist groups.' 'The cartoon shows good/bad people.'	1-2

Question		Answer	Marks	Guidance
		Level 4 Main message of cartoon identified The cartoonist is cynical about the twisted morality of politics. He is critical of this – he does not like the idea that by people changing their views allows them to be accepted. eg 'The main message is that terrorists are cynical as they change to gain what they want. In time it will happen with Bin Laden.' 'Former terrorists are now accepted people.'	5
		Level 5 Main message supported by details of the cartoon OR by contextual knowledge eg 'The main message is that terrorists can change to gain what they want. In time it will happen with Bin Laden. This is shown in the cartoon by the crossing out of the judgement bad and replacing it with 'good' whilst in the case of Bin Laden 'Give it time.' OR Context must relate to 9/11. eg 'The main message is that terrorists can change to gain what they want. In time Both Arafat and Adams have denounced terrorism as it has not achieved for them what they wanted. They are now prepared to negotiate. Bin Laden is still using violence as in relation to 9/11 and he is at that time seen as 'most wanted'.'	6

'To right a perceived injustice.' 'People feel unjustly treated by a powerful enemy.' 'Because of unpopular governments.'	3–4
		Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Five marks for a basic explanation; six marks for a developed explanation.) eg 'Almost all terrorist groups face an immensely powerful enemy. If people feel unjustly treated they reach the best option which is to fight. But they know they cannot survive an all out war. In Northern Ireland the IRA was up against a large modern army as well as a dedicated police force. So they resort to tactics such as car bombs to undermine the enemy and drive it away or encourage compromise.'	5–6
