Use black ink or black ball-point pen.

Write your name, centre number and candidate number in the spaces at the top of this page.

Answer two questions from Section A and one question from Section B.

Write your answers in the spaces provided in this booklet. If you run out of space, use the continuation page at the back of the booklet, and if this is not sufficient use supplementary sheets. Write your name at the top of each supplementary sheet, indicating clearly the number of the question you answer. Put the supplementary sheets inside this booklet.

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

The number of marks is given in brackets at the end of each question or part-question.

You are reminded that assessment will take into account the quality of written communication used in your answers that involve extended writing. These are the questions in Section B.

In addition, your ability to spell, punctuate and use grammar accurately will be assessed in your answer to your chosen question in Section B.

Look at these two sources about the involvement of the superpowers in the Middle East between 1948 and 1967 and answer the question that follows.

Source A

Following the end of the Second World War, there was widespread sympathy and support for the Jewish cause. The USA with its large Jewish population was influential in the creation of the state of Israel and provided huge financial support. The USSR also supported the Jewish state believing that the Jews needed a national homeland.

[From a school textbook]

Source B

The USSR soon switched sides and from the mid 1950s the Soviets fully supported various Arab regimes against Israel. By 1967 both the USSR and the USA were pouring huge amounts of financial aid and weapons into the conflict.
