3. Study the following extracts from a holiday diary. The family is staying in a log cabin in a National Park.

Monday – We had a great start to our holiday when we all enjoyed a guided walk through the local woods. The guide pointed out lots of different birds, trees and badger setts.

Tuesday – As it was my birthday we went to Alton Towers. The rides were really fast and exciting. For lunch we had a giant pizza from one of the food outlets.

Wednesday – It has rained all day but we had a fantastic meal at the local village pub. It was quite expensive!

Thursday – After breakfast in our log cabin Mum bought some bread, cheese and ham from the village shop so that we could have a picnic along the river path.

Friday – We were in the car all day sightseeing. We travelled for nearly 100 miles!

- (a) Using the above extract, identify three examples of ecotourism activities. [3]
